Binoculars Mailed Without Name

Postmaster W. J. Hyland was notified today that a package without identification has been mailed from Madison, containing a pair of "valuable binoculars" consigned to Lieut. Commander J. F. Livers, War Production Board naval advisor in Milwaukee, Apparently the glasses were offered for use of the navy during the war, but the owner neglected to place his name or address either inside or outside the package, Livers' letter reported. The package bore 36 cents in stamps. Hyland asked that anybody knowing the sender of the package contact the Madison postoffice so proper identification can be placed on the binoculars to insure their return atter the war.
