Music Clinic Pupils To Present Program

Two hundred and sixty-five high school pupils will appear in the All-State Music clinic's festival program at 7:30 p. m. V nesday in the Wisconsin Union theater, Prof. L. L. Illis, ellric director, announced Saturday. Under 20 teachers and directors, the pupils have been at work since last Sunday. They have been divided into a band of 210 pieces, conducted by Prof.

Raymond F. Dvorak; an or-chestra of 75 pieces, under Prof. Carl Bricken, and a chorus of 120 voices, led by Prof. Paul Jones. Many of the clinic pupils belong to two or all of the organiza-
