PROTEST MEETING Team managers and officials of the Sugar River Valley Baseball League will meet in Mitchell's hall at Mt. Vernon, July 8, to decide protests on the Madison East Side Businessmen-Hollandale game of May 24, Both teams protested the game which ended in the eighth inning after a dispute.

Harry Schramm blanked West the opening inning on two walks Bend on four hits, but Watertown and four singles and cinched their win with three runs in each of the lfifth and sixth frames. Rilev's best effort was three runs in the seventh.

Two veterans of better amateur paseball days faced each other as Barneveld tipped the Mt. Vernon-Perry Cubs, and Chris Dagenhart bested Milt Swingen, Dagenhart gave up nine hits; Swingen was touched for eight, five of which the winners bunched for five runs in the second inning. Campbell, Barneveld, led the hitters with a perfect day on three for three.

Each Held to Four Hits Norm Strommen, Hollandale pitcher, singled and then circled the bases when the ball got away from Wayne Knipschield, East Side outfielder, for the only run of the game as Hollandale nipped the Eastsiders. The tally came in the seventh inning of the game. cut to seven innings by mutual agreement.

Each team had only four hits with Strommen going the route against Mel Hanmer, East Side hurler. Reynolds, Hollandale, led the hitters with two hits. Scores by innings:

Late Run Gives Marshall 5-4 Triumph Over 3F Junior Nine

Newville Madison 3F Juniors Deerfield London Stoughton

A last ditch tally, a run after two were out in the ninth, kept the Marshall Lazers Motors baseball team in first place in the Dane County League Sunday. The run enabled the Motors to nip the Madison 3F Juniors, 5-4, for their fifth straight loop win since losing their season's opener.

Today Marshall leads by a onegame margin over Pleasant Hill, which trimmed Newville, 12-7, Kegonsa is a game and a half behind the leaders after beating Deerfield, 5-1. London trounced Stoughton, 16-4, in the fourth loop game Sunday.

Juniors Peck at Lead Marshall gained a 4-0 lead on the 3F Juniors with a third inning rally, but the Juniors managed to tie the score on three runs in the seventh and one in the eighth. Gerald Strassman singled, stole second, and scored on Bob Adams' single for the tying run. An error and two successive fielder's choices left Ray Kuhl on base with two out in Marshall's half of the ninth. Pitcher Bob. Stuntebeck then beat out an infield hit, and Jim Harman sent Kuhl home with the winning run by slamming a hit good for extra
