

Three Guests Heard Tonight When Music Hall Clan Gathers

Nelson Eddy, baritone heard Wednesday over CBS, joined Milton Berle, Virginia O'Brien, and Eleanor Powell in presenting a "command performance" for aviation cadets at Mather field recently. Request for the show came from Lieut. Jimmy Stewart.

Hull to Speak

Secretary of State Cordell Hull will address the nation tonight at 8:30 over WIBA and other stations. In announcing Hull would speak, Pres. Roosevelt said the cabinet official will try to drive home to the American people the seriousness of the war.

Screen players Brian Donlevy and Virginia Weidler will share the guest spotlight with M. K. F. Fisher, author of "How to Cook a Wolf" when Bob Crosby and Mary Martin call the NBC Music Hall clan together at 8 tonight over WIBA.

Mary Martin will head the song list with "The Boy in Khaki" and the Girl in Lace. "The Humming Bird Song," and "Goodnight, Sweetheart," and Bob's solo flights will be on "By the Light of the Silvery Moon" and "Walking the Floor Over You." Victor Borpe, the Music Makers and Hal, Ken Carpenter, Bob Crosby's guesting "Bob Cats," and John Scott Trotter's orchestra also will be heard.

Edgerton Club Holds Annual Stag Supper

EDGERTON—Members of the Edgerton Rotary club held their annual stag supper at the Edgerton Country club Tuesday; 15 members of the club participated in the golf tourney in the afternoon and supper was served to 35 persons at the club house at night. Golf prizes were awarded by Arnold Gessert and R. J. Stumpf, members of the committee, as follows: most putts, Royal Ladd; high score, Everett Ravn; most sixes, Almer Aalseth; high on three blind holes, Walter Welch; low gross, C. S. Midtton; newest player, Dr. F. W. Southworth; closest drive to hole on number seven, R. Marcelle Pett; and longest drive off number one, R. J. Stumpf.

William Bonneville, Washington, D. C., who is associated with the Interstate Commerce Commission, was a guest and spoke briefly about railroad traffic during the war.

Richland Plans to Honor New Soldiers

RICHLAND CENTER — July selectees are to be honored at the weekly band concert in Richland Center at 8:30 tonight at the city auditorium. The high school band, to play directed by Frank Italiano, will feature marimba solos by Margaret Ann Morton, Atty. E. E. Brindley and Leo P. Lownik will address the honored guests. The American Legion will escort the new soldiers through the business district before the concert starts.

The weekly interviews of soldiers will be another feature of the program and Director Italiano has asked Lieut. Robert Radcliffe, Euclid Coe, and Maxon E. Rice, who are visiting in the city, to be interviewed. Coe has just finished a year of ferrying planes in England from factories to air fields. Rice, an instructor in the engine test branch of the air corps at Chanute Field, is a California resident who is visiting relatives here.
