or canoeing vacation with stops at the always friendly youth hostels provided by community committees is of greater interest than ever to families who enjoy an adventurous out-of-door experience, students soon finishing summer school, and young people who work will hostel during the rest of the summer.

Some will go to nearby hostels for a weekend trip, as out to Blue Mounds, to the new Surprise hostel with its woods and brooks; or to Janesville's fine hostel on the Rock river; to Lake Mills where the hostel is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, and where may be seen a blue heron rookery, the Aztalan Indian mounds, a collection of Indian arrows, and a shoe factory; to the Yahara youth hostel in the village of Fulton, or to the Gibraltar youth hostel for fishing or boating on the Wisconsin river and climbing Glbraltar rock.

described in detail in the Youth Hostel handbook, available at the Madison hostel on the Poet (compared to the Madison hostel). This was a supplied to the Madison hostel on the Poet (compared to the Madison hostel) and the Madison hostel on the Poet (compared to the Madison hostel). A longer trip may be planned University ave., near Shorewood Hills entrance. One reaches the plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS first of a more remote loop of hostels by car, bus, or train. Several Madisonians have gone by England. Others plan to "share-acar" to Waupaca, for instance, for exploring the chain of lakes by canoe available near the hostel for $1 a day to hostelers. The hostel, the home of Mrs. Taylor on Lake Taylor, 3 miles from Waupaca, on Highway 22, was opened in June by the Waupaca branch of the American Association of University Women. Hastels especially recommended for those wishing to explore state forests are Beechwood youth hos- Vetter Elected tel, at the home of Mrs. Venilda Borski, in the town of Beechwood. 3 miles from the Ketile Moraine State Forest: the West Bend hostel on Little Cedar lake, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Wolkrum, 1½ miles from the Kettle Moraine-Black Forest area; Two Rivers hostel, 4 miles from Two Rivers on Route 147, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zander, and 1/2 mile from the Point Beach state forest on Lake Mich-

July brought in some new hostels, including Mapledale, the home of Mrs. R. H. Ludden, out from Viroqua, and the Waukegan hostel, at 1600 Grand ave., the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lange. New "emergency stops" at Fontana, Richland Center, Sturgeon Bay on Door county, and Portland and other new hostels are described in a free list sent on request by Justin Cline, 411 N Taylor st., Oak Park, Ill.
