LIMA CARPENTER ROBBED OF $80 BY HITCH-HIKERS

KENTON, Aug. 8-A hold-up was revealed Saturday n the story as related by Jay C. Smith of Kenton, 64, (who receptly came here to live), after his return from an adventurous trip. Smith reported that Friday rvening as he was returning to Kenton from his work in Lima. where he is employed as a carpenter, he picked up a young man in an Army uniform and a girl hitch-hiker.

Thru conversation, on the return trip, the couple learned that the east part of the city, they placed a gun in his ribs, he related. He was forced to drive the pair to Mansfield where they robbed him of approximately $80 in pny, which he had just received in Lima.

He reported the matter to Mansfield authorities. No information telling of the arrest of the two had been received by Kenton police Saturday afternoon. In a shirt pocket Smith had $12 from a previous pay which the pair did not get. This was used in part to buy gasoline for the return trip to Kenton.

When he was still east of Marion, because of the bright lights on the automobiles, he was forced to pull off to the side of the road and spend the night. He stated that he is unable to drive at night because of poor vision. Smith returned to Kenton Saturday morning, thankful to be back safely despite his financial loss.

REALISM PUT INTO TRAINING AT ANNAPOLIS

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Aug. 8 --(AP) - Realistic, first-hand accounts of major naval engagements in the Philippines, the Coral sea and at Midway island have been added to the U.S. Naval Academy's stepped-up program for producing topnotch junior officers.

Hard-hitting Tectures by the Bulkleys, Jarretts and Wagners, World War II Erroes, provided senior midshipmen, reservists and academy officers with graphic illustrations of modern naval warfare's stringent demands. Altho there are no established octure schedules, Rear-Admiral

John R. Beardall, academy superintendent, said today the Navy hoped to send experts in every field - from aviators to submarine commanders - to Annapolis to narrate their experiences and describe changing battle
