film is based on the story of Eric McKnight. Others in the cast include Henry Stephenson, Nigel Bruce, Gladys Cooper, Philip Merivale and Sara Aligood.

Thrills, comedy, romance and hit tunes are on tap in the Ohio film, "Reyond the Blue Horizon," starring Dorothy Lamour, Richard Denning, Jack Haley, Patricia Morison, Walter Abel, Helen Gilbert and Elizabeth Patterson. In the story Miss Lamour is a child raised in the jungle, but who grows up without fear of wolves. "Tortilla Flat," a story of simple people in a simple village, is offered at the State theatre with Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr and John Garfield in the leading roles. Co-featured is "The Spoilers," with Marlene Dietrich, Randolph Scott and John Wayne in the leading roles.

The fast-moving, action-packed melodrama of an underworld rat who tries to use the uniform of Uncle Sam as the perfect hide-out for a murder, "Top Sergeant," is now at the Lyric theatre. Andy Devine, Don Terry and Richard Davies are the stars. Also showing is "Dangerous Lady," starring Neil Hamilton and June Storey.

The story of a big-hearted department store owner who unwittingly discovered that his employes were highly underpaid and read to form a union, is told in "The Devil and Miss Jones," with Jean Arthur, Robert Cummings: Charles Coburn in the leading roles at the Drive-In theatre.
