EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON SWAM 10 MILES AT THE AGE OF 110

Henry Jonkins, a Yorkshireman known as the modern Methuselah, was born in 1501 and died in 1670, at the age of 169. His age is recorded on a black marble tablet in the church of Bolton where he is buried. He appeared as a witness in a court twice in his lifetime, once at the age of 120, and a second time when he was 157 years old. At the age of 110, he swam 10 miles.
