

Bumstead's Newest Girl Steals Show At Quilna

Twin Bills Are Currently Showing At Sigma, Lyric And State; Ohio Has Abbott And Costello

The Bumstead family's newest addition, a girl, steals the show at the Quilna theatre in the current attraction, "Blondie's Blessed Event." Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake and Larry Simms are the starring performers of the film, which is offered with "A Desperate Chance for Ellery Queen." The second named picture stars William Gargan and Margaret Lindsay.

Pierre, beloved rogue of the famous stage play, comes to the screen in new adventures in the Canadian Northwest in "Pierre of the Plains," swashbuckling romance at the Sigma theatre. John Carroll plays the title role, with Ruth Hussey and Bruce Cabott sharing starring honors. Norma Shearer, Robert Taylor and George Sanders star in the co-feature, "Her Cardboard Lover."

Blow-Torch Barber, Angel Of Refugee Kids Scheduled

One Of Strangest Of Court Mysteries To Be Dramatized On "Famous Jury Trials" Program

An optometrist from Oklahoma City, termed "The Blow-Torch Barber" will shave himself with a blazing acetylene torch when he appears as a guest star on Dave Elman's "Hobby Lobby," Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. over WAHC. Among the other interesting hobbyists scheduled are a woman who risks her life in helping refugee children; a well-known author who collects ancient and modern weapons of warfare; a teen-age farm boy who builds spinning wheels, and a comedian who collects and plays strange harmonicas.

One of the strangest of court mysteries, which began when Leo Dubin, filling station proprietor, was murdered during a robbery will be dramatized during "Famous Jury Trials," Tuesday at 9 p. m. over WZ.

Police suspected two of the Frascetti brothers and quickly apprehended Nicky Frascetti. When his slow-witted brother, "Mokey" was not found, Nicky was tied alone for the crime. His family aided his defense, two other brothers and his immigrant mother supplying a strong alibi. But when a surprise announcement concerning the finding of "Mokey" was made during the trial, real fireworks began and mother was arrayed against son, culminating in an astonishing courtroom spectacle.

To give proper recognition to the numbers of those life rafts without which many fliers downed in the trial, real fireworks began and mother was arrayed against son, culminating in an astonishing courtroom spectacle.

Narrator James Backus will then switch the scene to the Boeing Experimental Laboratories in Seattle, Wash., where pilots receive practical experience, particularly in high altitude flying, before they go up into the stratosphere. There will be a demonstration in the strato-chamber of a flight test. Another pickup will

SECOND SHIFT IS ADDED BY OTTAWA PLANT

(Lima News Bureau)—OTTAWA, Aug. 25—A second shift of workers was put on duty in the Ottawa factory of Weather-seal, Inc., last night as expanding orders necessitated speeding up production in the local plant.

Randall Edling, manager of the Ottawa plant, said about 15 men are being employed at present on this shift which will work from 4 p. m. to midnight. Should business warrant it, the number will be increased, he explained.

Next week the local factory will have been in operation one year, Edling pointed out. During its first year in operation here, the firm has filled orders for approximately 42,000 storm windows and 4,000 storm doors in its extensive sales territory, the manager reported.

Plans for erecting another factory building at the rear of the present plant on E. Second-st. have been delayed by war production officials. To date, priorities on materials for the new building have been held up.
