Bankers List Dewey Heads New York GOP

Selection Worries Willkie Followers SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y.-(U.P)-The New York state gubernatorial campaign, with its im- ples for the guidance of member portant bearing on the 1944 presidential sweepstakes, was under way today, Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican candidate, opened it before the convention which nominated him Monday night with a pledge of loyalty to "the commander-inchief" but a reservation of "the right to criticize." The Republican state convention holds its final session today to nominate the remainder of its ticket - Thomas W. Wallace, Schenectady, for lieutenant gov-ernor; Frank C. Moore, Kenmore, for comptroller; and Nathaniel L. Goldstein, Brooklyn, for attorneygeneral.

Followers of Wendell L. Willkie were none too happy over events, despite the fact that the state platform embodied Willkie's strictures against appeasement in the conduct of the war and isolationism after the war. They fear that Dewey, if elected, will be Willkie's rival for the 1944 Republican presidential nomination, and a most potent one with New York state behind him. Their fears were only slightly mollified by a fleeting reference to 1944 in Demey's acceptance speech.

Dewey, they felt, was not so pledged that he couldn't be a more or less reluctant beneficiary of a 1944 Draft-Dewcy-for-President movement. Their uneasiness was further increased by the unusual care with which the Dewey men, who are in complete control of the convention, selected the party's candidate for lieutenant-governor.

Principals for Loan-Making

MILWAUKEE - Citing the fact that banks are not only making commercial but also personal loans, the consumer credit committee of the Wisconsin Bankers assn, has issued a code of princibanks making loans for personal and family uses. Two major points included in the code are:

ONE. Banks have a special obligation to observe both the letter and the spirit of government credit restrictions designed to prevent runaway inflation. As a patriotic service, needless borrowing should be discouraged; but banks continually should seek ways of making sound loans for necessary pur-charges on installment loans shall nation's internal security. be fair, reasonable, and clearly stated; and when a loan is repaid ahead of schedule, unearned charges shall be rebated to the borrower on a pro-rata basis.
