

Radio Network To Portray Review Of Britain At War

Shortwave Story Scheduled For Tuesday Night; Jury Trial Also Booked For Airlines

"This Nation at War", WJZ network series which reports the war activities of the people on the home front, will span the ocean by shortwave on Tuesday at 9:30 p. m., to hear the story of England at war.

Speaking from London, Robert S. John, noted commentator and writer, will offer a commentary on the England which has survived and surmounted three grueling years of war. He will emphasize how industry is functioning under war-time conditions. During his leisure hours, St. John works in a British munitions plant.

Narrator James Backus, directing the program from New York, will then shift the scene to the Army Air Force Combat Crew School at Smyrna, Tenn., where Lieut. Burgess Meredith, former radio, screen and stage actor, will broadcast from a giant, four-motor bomber plane as the facts are told of how a ferry command pilots and crews are trained for their highly specialized and dangerous tasks.

Other sections to receive the spotlight will be the research laboratories of a Minneapolis Co. for a description of the indicator used to measure ice on plane wings, and the manner in which the de-icers operate, and finally, a pickup from Cleveland, O., for a review of the Westinghouse "Health for Victory" Clubs established in major industries throughout the country.

Mark Winthrop will be tried for the murder of his son when "Famous Jury Trials" brings a case of rural violence to its WJZ listeners. Tuesday, at 9 p. m.

Winthrop's 23-year-old son was found dead beside a creek on his father's farm. Investigation proved that the father had quarreled with his son the previous evening.

Winthrop's own housekeeper, as well as neighbors who disliked him, testified against him at the trial. Privates Stuart and Jack Wallace, estranged from their family since they were told, learned at Camp Wolters, Mineral Springs, Tex. that they are heirs to almost $5000 bequeathed them by their late grandmother, Carolyn Baldwin, and the pair will probably appear on the Are You a Missing Heir program at 8:00 p. m. via WABC to establish their claim. It is known for a certainty that Private Jack Wallace has already received his Commander's permission to make the trip north, but there is some doubt that Stuart, also stationed at the same camp, can obtain a leave, at the same time.

Nat Leslie, drummer for Meredith Willson, will be signally honored by the maestro on the Meredith Willson-John Nesbitt program 9:30 p. m. via WEAF when Willson features Leslie's "Sentimental Journal," from the archives of music, lost to the public for some reason or other. Willson will also play the Sousa march "Manhattan Beach." Connie Haines, the program's petite singer will sing the lyrics to the lost tune. John Nesbitt will present excerpts from Mein Kampf in a stirring challenge to the public, so that it may further heed the danger of Hitler.

Two heroes of the First World War will tell of their experiences and their present work when they are presented by Horace Heidt on the "Treasure Chest" broadcast over WABC Youngstown, O., at 8:30 p. m.

They are Maj. K. M. Haber, who saw action on four of the five major fronts in the last war and who is now executive officer representing the U. S. Army at the Ravenna, O., arsenal, and Joseph Rendall, a Marine in the last war who is now a deputy in a Youngstown Court. Rendall was awarded the Order of the Purple Heart and the Oak Cluster for heroic action in France.

FIRST CHECKS FOR DEPENDENTS MAILED BY ARMY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—(AP)—Checks for about $2,000,000 in accumulated payments to dependents of enlisted men in the Army were sent out today by the War Department.

The War department said this sum represented a "conservative estimate" of the allowances accumulated since June 1 in about 20,000 emergency cases which already had been approved when President Roosevelt signed a bill advancing from November 1 to September 1 the date for initial payments under the allowances and allotments act for service men's dependents.

Additional checks will be mailed as rapidly as pending applications can be cleared. It was estimated that eventually there would be approximately 500,000 applications for over 1,000,000 men in the Army, with an average of two dependents for each application.

All the allowances accrue as of June 1. A soldier's wife, without children, will get $50 a month, $22 from the soldier's pay, and $28 from the government. For one child, the government adds $12, and for each additional child $10.

The Navy department, with a much smaller organization, began mailing its checks Aug. 24, distributing $17,435.80 in the first batch.

COINCIDENCE FINDS TWO ARE IN ARMY AGAIN

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Coincidentally speaking, Walter S. Rhodes and Robert Eaves, both 43, volunteered together back in '17, trained together, went overseas together and fought side by side at St. Mihiel and the Argonne. After the war, they were mustered out together, receiving their honorable discharges on the same date, April 19, 1919.

This morning, they met again on the same courthouse lawn from which they left a quarter of a century ago.

They glanced quickly at each other's baggage. "You too?" "Yeah, and you?" "It was true—they had been drafted on the same day for another war, and they commented: "We hope we can stay together thru this one."
