Dr. I. Q., 'the Mnetal Banker,' to Make WIBA Debut Tonight

WIBA will add another new feature to its broadcasts when Dr. Kiss," "In the Garden of Tomor-I. O., quiz show, makes it debut row," "Dark Eyes." I. Q., quiz show, makes it debut over the station at 8:30 tonight. The program, now in its fourth year on radio, presents Jimmy McClain as the "mental banker" and master of ceremonies. . Mc-Clain employes a dozen researchers who work up about 600 questions each week, from which 36 are chosen for the program. Between $400 and $1,500 is paid each week to members of the audience who answer the questions correct-

By TOMMY DEVINE GREAT LAKES, III—(U.P.)—Size, sped and "savvy." That combination is going to make the Great Lakes Naval Training Station football team one of the nation's outstanding elevens.

Great Lakes has all the requirements of a "super college team" and it appears improbable that any of the 12 under-graduate outfits meets will possess the strength o halt the sailors.
Lt. Paul D. (Tony) Hinkle, for-nerly at Butler University, Indianapolis, is coaching the Bluejackets. He's experienced some difficulty fitting players accustomed to a wide variety of systems into his offense grid pattern. How-ever, that isn't likely to decrease Popov at right half and Steve Bethe team's effectiveness once the schedule starts. The squad is packed with players of too much natural ability to be halted by such a minor obstacle.
