Riding with you on the Erie tonight-or when next you travel-you'll find an increasing number of men in uniform. They're traveling by carloads and trainloads Who knows but that among them is a boy from our town -destined to become the next airman to blast an Axis sub!

Erie's first job and yours is to get that boy and his buddles through to their military destination. Sometimes in doing this we can't give you who must travel all the comforts you've grown accustomed to, but we know you know we're doing all we can help us help you and all the "Pilot Peaks" by following these six steps to better warting travel: (1) Reserve rail tickets and Pullman apace as early as possible; (2) Take Pullman space available instead of waiting for preferred accommodations; (3) Purchase roundtrip tickets; (4) Plan your trip for early in the week of week; (5) When possible take Icas luggage; (6) Obtain advance information on train schedules.

So-when next you ride the Erie,
