

Kate Smith Will Present Bits From Broadway Success

Gladys Cooper And Wendy Barrie Will Star In Emlyn Williams' War Drama, "The Morning Star"

Kate Smith will present excerpts from Emlyn Williams' new Broadway success, "The Morning Star," a drama of war-torn London and starring Gladys Cooper, on her Variety Hour over WABC Friday at 8 p. m. Other features of the program will include Olyn Landick, "The Hackensack Gossip," Ted Collins, Jack Miller, and the orchestra and chorus.

Raymond Gram Swing, observing the 12th anniversary of his first shortwave broadcast to England, will be heard over WJZ Friday, 8:30 to 9 p. m., in a special program marking the event.

Co-speakers on the anniversary program, entitled "Anglo-American Relations Today," will be John G. Winant, U. S. ambassador to the Court of St. James; Viscount Halifax, British ambassador to the U. S., and S. K. Ratcliffe, widely known BBC speaker.

Grantland Rice, dean of America's sports authorities, has been signed for his 10th consecutive season as football commentator on the "Cities Service" program. Returning to the microphone Friday

HERE'S A MARK TO SHOOT AT

J. H. Myers, of 730 E. Vine-st., thinks he established something of a record for raising sweet potatoes in some garden lots on St. Johns-ave just south of E. Fourth-st. He dug two potatoes, one weighing four pounds and a half and the other three and a half pounds. The earth had not been turned for two years and proved exceptionally rich. The potatoes were solid and perfectly formed.

Girl Scout Activities

Girl Scouts of Troop 1 participated in a hobo hike Tuesday incorporating it with their nature study. The girls visited Olsen's Greenhouse where the proprietor gave an account of the plants and flowers there. Mary Ellen Hoyt and Phyllis Lutz will represent the troop at the Juliette Low tea. The representatives from the senior patrol going to the senior tea are Carol Simon, Ruth and Mary Kruse. Dorothy Ashbaugh, first class scout at Van Wert, has been admitted to the troop.

BRICKER FAILS TO APPEAR AT HARDIN-CO FAIR

Lieut. Gov. Paul Herbert Makes Address At Kenton; Governor Ill

(Lima News Bureau) KENTON, Oct. 2.—In communication received late Thursday by officials of the Kenton Chamber of Commerce and the Hardin-co fair board, Mrs. Hervey, private secretary to Gov. John W. Bricker, notified officials here that the governor was suddenly taken ill Wednesday evening and that his doctor had ordered him to see no one for the next 48 hours. By this order, his scheduled visit to the third annual Hardin-co fair today had to be changed. In his stead, Mrs. Hervey stated that Lieut. Gov. Paul Herbert, a native of Kenton, will deliver the main address. A dinner scheduled for this noon with the governor was held with the lieutenant governor present. The dinner was for members of the fair board and those who assisted in the event. Today is Bond Day and School
