Scovilles Mark 30th Anniversary in Evansville
EVANSVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Scoville observed their 30th wedding anniversary at their home here Monday. They have one son, Lieut. Leroy A. Scoville, who was believed to have been taken prisoner by the Japanese when the Philippines islands fell. He was a member of Company A, 192nd tank battalion of Janesville. Mr. and Mrs. Scoville were married in Albany, Oct. 12, 1912. They are lifelong Evansville residents. Scoville has been employed at the Baker Manufacturing Co. for the past 31 years.

Evansville Gets Old Coffee Grinder
EVANSVILLE—A unique donation to Evansville scrap drive this week was a century-old coffee grinder used by the late W. J. Clark, Evansville grocerman. The grinder was donated by his widow, now living in Houston, Tex. The grinder had been in storage for many years, and weighs about 200 pounds. Base, wheels, and frame are iron, while the bowl, of five-pounds' capacity, is of copper.

Lancaster Church Burns Mortgage Taken Out in 1924
LANCASTER — An 18-year-old debt on Bethlehem Evangelical and Reformed church here was liquidated Sunday and the mortgage was burned. The ceremony, which took place at the morning service, was performed by the pastor, the Rev. William G. Schwemmer, assisted by Henry Belschamper, president of the church society; Leo Henkel, chairman of the committee on loans and improvements, and William Parel. The money was borrowed when a Sunday school room was added to the church in 1924.
