Andrews Sisters Entertain In State Theatre Tunefilm

"World At War" Is Co-Featured With "Private Buckaroo" In Performance Scheduled To Open Thursday

High comedy prevails in "Private Buckaroo" that opens Thursday at the State theatre.

In this zestful tunefilm the Andrews sisters carol with enthusiasm and the most solid scenes occur when Harry James takes off on his horn. The picture shows what happens when the maestro of the top swing band of the country hears the call to arms.

Second Thursday offering at the State is "World at War." Meanwhile "Wings for the Eagle" and "Syncopation" are
