

Tommy Dorsey's Rhythmic Music Is Heard At Quilna

Cast Of Stars Augments Musical Scores In "Orchestra Wives," Now Flashing On Market-st Screen

The walls of the Quilna theatre are vibrating these days with the rhythmic music of Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra, featured in the current film, "Orchestra Wives." The cast includes George Montgomery, Ann Rutherford, Lynn Bari, Carole Landis, Cesar Romero, Virginia Gilmore and Mary Beth Hughes, and tells the inside story of the darlings who marry the boys in the band.

Masterful acting on the part of James Cagney lifts the current Ohio film, "Yankee Doodle Dandy," into a niche worthy of cinema posterity as he portrays the role of George M. Cohan, one of the 20th century. Joan Leslie, Walter Huston and Jeanne of the stage's leading personalities have prominent roles in the story of the famous entertainer's life.

"Brooklyn Orchid," the new comedy streamliner, stars William Bendix, Joe Sawyer, Marjorie Woodworth and Grace Bradley, is currently on view at the Sigma theatre, and involves two taxicab tycoons and a blonde beauty contest winner. Charles Winninger, Charlie Ruggles, James Craig and Nancy Kelly are the stars of the co-feature, "Friendly Enemies."

A boyegman film is frightening fans again at the Lyric theatre, this time with "The Man Who Returned to Life," the story of a man faced with the problem of surrendering to the law in order to save an innocent man. Also showing is "Stagecoach Buckaroo," starring Johnny Mack Brown. Concluding Thursday are "The Invaders" and "Ladies in Retirement."

Romantic drama played against the vast sweep of our own vast country with the thrills and power that went into its development is headed this way in "The Great Man's Lady," the new State film commencing Friday and starring Barbara Stanwyck, Joel McCrea and Brian Donlevy. Co-featured will be "Butch Minds the Baby." Showing for the last time Thursday is "Sergeant York," held over one day in response to numerous requests.

OHIO
A combination of song-and-dance talent to make any movie fan sit up and take notice, will be on the screen of the Ohio theatre when Paramount brings Irving Berlin's long-awaited "Holiday Inn" to town Saturday with stars Bing Crosby and Fred Astaire topping the players.

Casting Hollywood's most popular warbler and hooper together seems to be a stroke of showman-genius. Adding Irving Berlin's music—eleven new hit songs and two old ones, two lovely-to-look-at singing and dancing girls, Marjorie Reynolds and Virginia Dale, plus a delightful story—and you have a silver platter of entertainment the like of which isn't dished out every day!

"Holiday Inn" tells the story of Bing Crosby's efforts to live the kind of life which will leave him free to rest and relax a good part of the time. He hits upon the idea of converting his Connecticut farmhouse into an inn open only on holidays, so he'll have the balance of the year to himself. On each of the holidays he puts on an appropriate floor show with the assistance of Marjorie Reynolds. Astaire is trying to steal Marjorie from Bing to be his dancing partner, replacing Virginia Dale, who has walked out on him. Virginia complicates the situation by returning at the wrong time. There's quite a romantic to-do among the four principals, but it wouldn't do to tell all.

"Holiday Inn," produced and directed by Mark Sandrich, who directed most of Astaire's great dance musicals, and Jack Benny's hits, promises to be movie diver-

ADMITS DOUBLE SLAYING

Robert T. Bailey, 21-year-old Army deserter, peers from behind jail bars after his arrest at Santa Maria, Calif., for the slaying near Tomah, Wis., of two women social workers last Monday. Deputy District Attorney Thomas Weldon said Bailey signed a confession admitting the killings.

sen and Everett Carter, and two western ballad classics. "The Man Who Returned to Life," strange and powerfully exciting drama of a man who came back from the grave, after having been declared legally dead, is also at the Lyric theatre. Hailed as one of the season's top thrillers, the new film features John Howard in the leading role.

ARTERY, VEIN SEVERED
ST. MARYS, Sept. 17—Herbert Fehneke, of near Washab, employed at the St. Marys Manufacturing Co., suffered a great loss of blood when both the artery and vein in his temple were severed. The flow of blood was checked through the pressure point method until arrival of a physician who closed the wound. Eleven stitches were required.

LIBRARIAN AT COLUMBUS GROVE TAKES NEW POST

(Lima News Bureau)
COLUMBUS GROVE, Sept. 17—Miss Zoia Franz has taken up her duties as a teacher in the Monnett School for Girls at Rensselaer, Ind., a private institution. For the last three years, Miss Franz has been librarian in the Columbus Grove school. Before that, she was a teacher in the local system. Her friends entertained her at a shower in the home of Mrs. Yinnie Ridinger before she left.

Maudie Runs For President In New Episode Of Her Diary

All Kinds Of Foul Play Will Be Encountered In Thursday's Harum-Scarum Radio Drama

With Davy Dillon as her brain-storming campaign manager, Maudie runs for president of Suburban High's Junior Class in the latest harum-scarum episode of "Maudie's Diary" to be presented on Thursday at 7:30 p. m. over WABC. Terrific opposition from google-puss Rita Moffet brings on all kinds of foul play! Following Maudie's instructions to spread her name all over, poor Davy dreams up vote getting ideas which land him in Principal Dudley's office!

Henry Aldrich tampers with Cupid's prerogatives, signing a letter to Homer with "Lovingly Anna," to stir up a tempest on "The Aldrich Family" over WEAF Thursday, at 8:30 p. m.

Radio's Stage Door Canteen program will offer a study in contrast on Thursday, at 9:30 p. m. over WABC when Gertrude Lawrence, brilliant actress and comedienne, headlines a bill which includes the jiving Andrews Sisters and funnyman Frank Fay. It will be one of Miss Lawrence's rare radio appearances—her first, in fact, in many months. The Andrews Sisters will sing, accompanied by Raymond Paige's band and Fay will present one of the comedy routines that are his specialty.

PUTNAM-CO MAN GETS JAIL TERM

(Lima News Bureau)
OTTAWA, Sept. 17—Frank Merschman of west of Ottawa charged a former plea of not guilty to one of guilty to a charge of molesting a young girl when he was taken before Judge A. A. Slaybaugh in the Putnam-co common pleas court here.

Merschman was sentenced to six months in the county jail and required to pay the costs of the prosecution of his case. He was indicted on the molesting charge and on a second charge of rape with consent, by the grand jury last spring.

The second indictment was quashed by Prosecuting Attorney Charles Varner after the defendant changed his plea. Merschman was to have gone to trial this week on the indictments.

The man was arrested last winter by Sheriff Arnold Potts after the latter received a complaint from the man's daughters that he had been molesting his granddaughter.

"WE'VE CARRIED 75 MILLION* WARTIME TRAVELERS - since Pearl Harbor"

Let This Typical Greyhound Bus Answer From Experience Your Questions About Travel Today

*Have you really carried that many people?
"Well, personally I've carried close to 38,000 passengers in the last nine months—but all of us Greyhound buses together have served more people than ever before, over 75 million travelers."

Just who is traveling today?
"A large share of my passengers are people connected with the war effort—soldiers and sailors, selectees, reservists, war workers, business men and women, farmers, nurses, for instance."

Is your job different now?
"Yes, in a sense. I operate on only the most vital routes today. Once I was a Limited, but such service has been eliminated—along with many extra sections and all duplicated service."

Does a bus save essential war materials?
"I don't want to boast, but I'm using only a fraction as much rubber and fuel per person, per mile, as private cars do—and I'm bettering my old records every day."

When's the best time to travel?
"I can answer that easily—on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, or Thursdays, avoiding the more crowded week-ends. It's also well to skip holidays and other rush periods when possible."

How else can travelers help?
"By accepting occasional inconveniences with a smile! It helps, too, if you cut down on the amount of baggage you take—and if you get tickets and information in advance."
