

Mystery In New Form Heads Double Bill At Sigma Screen

Favorite Actors Have Leading Roles In "Iceland," Now Showing At Quilna

Mystery in a new form, with the intricacies of a dual personality mind, comes to the Sigma screen on Wednesday in "Calling Dr. Gillespie," dramatic medical-detective story with Lionel Barrymore and Philip Dorn in the starring roles.

Franchot Tone and Joan Bennett enact the leading roles of the comedy, "The Wife Takes A Flyer," now at the Lyric theatre. The story concerns an R. A. F. flier who bails out over occupied territory and romances with the favorite of one Nazi big-wig.

A romance, a strange case of dual personality, and thrills and mystery in a great hospital go into "Calling Dr. Gillespie," a gripping dual personality mystery opening at the Sigma theatre Wednesday.

The story deals with the discovery by Dr. Gillespie, played by Lionel Barrymore and Dr. Geinoid, portrayed by Philip Dorn of symptoms of a strange dementia in Roy Todwell, young socialite depicted by Philip Brown.

Thrills, comedy, romance and hit tunes are on tap in Dorothy Lamour's latest sarong-draped jungle epic, "Beyond The Blue Horizon," now at the State theatre.

Midnight shows of the spook variety are booked in the Ohio theatre Thursday and Friday, with Dr. Silkini's "Asylum of Horrors" on the stage.

The long-awaited "Wake Island" film dramatization of the 446 beleaguered Marines on the tiny Pacific isle who held out against 20 to 1 odds of Jap bombing and invasion forces.

Advance reports from preview observers have already pronounced this picturization of the gallant Marine stand an epic as motion picture entertainment.

Featured in the cast of the thrilling account of Marine heroism are Brian Donlevy, Robert Preston, Macdonald Carey, Albert Dekker, Walter Abel, Barbara Britton and William Bendix.

"Wake Island" concerns itself with the men who did the fighting in the foxholes and in the air in defending that patch of desert soil jutting out of the Pacific.

PRICE CEILING WILL BE PLACED ON RAYON HOSE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (INS)—Here's some good news for girls today, the OPA is going to issue soon a specific price ceiling for women's rayon hose.

The OPA said that there simply is "no excuse" for an increase in prices of rayon hosiery.

Meanwhile, the OPA said that any dealer who may be tempted to pay inflated prices for hosiery is "now given fair warning that he need not look to OPA for relief if he has been unwise in his buying."

Dealers also were told they need not purchase heavier styles to obtain delivery of sheer rayon hosiery.

Any such practice of allocating sheer hosiery—on a so-called production or otherwise—which makes selling terms more burdensome than the March price ceiling regulations is a violation of the maximum price law, the OPA said.
