Girl's Death Reveals Huge Abortion Mill

NEW YORK-(U.P)-The death of a soldier's bride resulted Wednesday in the smashing of an abortion mill alleged to involve 21 physicians.

Twenty physicians were arrested in hospitals, offices, and homes, questioned, and allowed to leave, pending further action.

Several women also were arrested. They were accused of Dr. Henry Katz, 51, who was said ers" for his mill.

The bride went to Dr. Katz as 'Hannah Gold," but her mother identified her as Harriet Lichtenberg, 23. Asst. Dist. Atty. Frank X. O'Brien said she and a soldier, now believed to be at Camp Shelby, Miss., were married two months ago.

Dr. Katz said he operated on her Oct. 10. Fearing that she would die and he would be exposed, he called a prominent ob-stetrical surgeon. The surgeon ordered her taken to a hospital and reported the case to police.

She died Saturday. Dr. Katz was arrested, charged with homicide.

O'Brien said that under the law, physicians who send women to abortionists are just as guilty as the abortionists.
