Blackfriars Drop Three-Act Plays

Actors Will Continue Smaller Productions

Blackfriars dramatic organization has discontinued three-act play production for the duration unless the group receives financial backing for such projects, it was decided at a meeting of the group Thursday night. They will continue to put on one-act plays "when and as requested" however, for organizations. The group stressed its willingness to put on productions for the USO, army, and navy schools. The charge was made because many members have left the organization for the armed forces and War work, and it was found impossible to carry on the full program as originally planned. If three-act plays are produced, the group will not do more than one a season, it was decided.

Marquette Meets Arizona Tonight

MILWAUKEE (UP)—Marquette University's football team will make its first home stand of the 1942 season tonight against unbeaten and untied Arizona before a crowd of 20,000 fans. The Hilltoppers have scored 83 points against 54 for their opponents, winning three out of four games on the road. They bowed to Wisconsin, 35-7, but beat Kansas, 14-0; Iowa State, 34-12; and Michigan State, 28-7. Arizona has scored 110 points to 12 for the four opponents it defeated this season. Its victims included New Mexico Aggies, Utah, Arizona Teachers and Oklahoma Aggies. Arizona's attack is spearheaded by Bob Ruman, regarded as one of the finest offensive halfbacks in the country. Coach Tom Sigham's Marquette outfit was in the pink of form after two vigorous drills late this week. Forecast as a highlight of the game was a running, passing and punting duel between Ruman and Marquette's sophomore standout, John Strzykalski.

$20 Salary Raise Voted for Nurses at Lake View

A salary raise of $20 was voted by the board of directors of the Lake View sanatorium Friday by the county board on request by the personnel committee. The nurses were given raises from $45 a month plus $30 maintenance, to $65 plus maintenance. Difficulty in holding nurses at the sanatorium at the former salary was cited as the reason for the raise. The board also sent to the personnel committee a request that Paul Knaeus, acting county poor commissioner, who recently replaced Philip J. Canepa, be given a $160 salary and that he be reimbursed retroactive to Sept. 21. Knaeus was hired at $145 a month plus $15 emergency raises, but has been receiving $135 a month plus the raises. South Africa expects to mine 20,000 tons of coal this year.

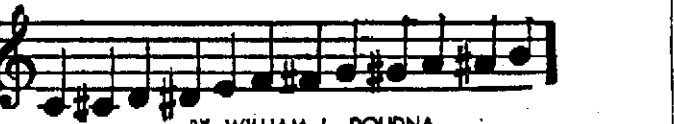

Credit Group's Directors Relected in Three Meetings

RICHLAND CENTER — Instead of holding its annual meeting in one city, the Baraboo Production Credit assn. held it in three sectional meetings this week at Mauston, Richland Center, and Baraboo, voting on directors and hearing reports. Directors for the past year were reelected. They are L. R. Siebeck, Richland Center; John H. Turgasen, Richland Center; Arthur G. Schultz, Mauston; Louis C. Dedrich, Plain, and R. C. Nichols, Wisconsin Dells. Siebeck has been serving as president and Turgasen as vice-president.

Speech Institute Will Open Here for High Schools

A speech institute for the Wisconsin High School Forensic assn. will be held in Madison Nov. 20 by the University of Wisconsin department of debating and public instruction, it was announced today. All southern Wisconsin high schools participating in organized forensics will be invited to the classes in debate, oration, extemporaneous speaking, reading, dramatics, and declamation. Practice debates on post war world organization and a debate between teams from the University of Wisconsin and Purdue university will be featured.

Notes for You

THE HITS: "White Christmas" today continued in first place on The State Journal's list of Madison's 12 best sellers in popular music, while "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition" climbed to second.

Two tunes which had been absent came back, "Amen" after five weeks and "At Last" after one week. Casualties were "I Came Here to Talk for Joe," which had been on the list only one week, and "Stage Door Canteen," which had been among the leaders for nine-straight weeks.

Here are the 12 best sellers, as shown by this department's weekly survey of phonograph records, sheet music, and automatic phonograph business: FIRST. "White Christmas," second straight week. SECOND. "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition," up from third.

THIRD. "Strip Polka," up from eighth. FOURTH. "My Devotion," down from second. FIFTH. "There's a Star-Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere," down one place. SIXTH. "Kalamazoo," second successive week. SEVENTH. "He Wears a Pair of Silver Wings," down from fifth.

EIGHTH. "Manhattan Serenade," up from 12th. NINTH. "At Last," up from 14th. TENTH. "Be Careful, It's My Heart," down one place. ELEVENTH. "Serenade in Blue," down from seventh. TWELFTH. "Amen," up from 13th.

CASUALTIES. "I Left My Heart at the Stage Door Canteen," from 10th to 13th; "I Came Here to Talk for Joe," from 11th to 22nd. COMING UP. "Mr. Five by Five," "When the Lights Go On Again," "Der Fuehrer's Face."

AT THE UNION: Sir James Barrie's "What Every Woman Knows" will be presented for the last time tonight in the Wisconsin Union theater. Curtain for the Wisconsin players' production will be at 8. MAGIO: Ben Berger, Madison magician, will appear tonight and Sunday in Omaha, Nebr., in a "headliners'" show presented in connection with the convention of the Midwest Magicians' group.

At the Capitol FEATURE: Desperate Journey. TYPE: War. REVIEWER: Helen Matheson. CAST: Terry, Errol Flynn; John, Ronald Reagan; Kirk, Alan Hale; Kate Nancy Coleman; Maj. Ott, Raymond Massey.

STORY: Five RAF fliers survive a crash landing deep in Germany and escape their Nazi captors, taking along a sheet of vital enemy documents. Aided by the underground, they fight their way from the Polish border toward Holland and the Channel. HIGH SPOTS: The bombing attack seen through the eyes of the bombardier, the anti-aircraft crews below him, and a fighter pilot lurking above. The captured American, offered a bribe by a Nazi officer, helpfully offers the specifications of a new super-charger in tongue-tangling double-talk. The crippled bomber crashes in a German forest. Errol Flynn revealing a splendid profile and great ability to look noble. heart-catching thrills created without horror. LOW SPOTS: Nazi officers chattering volubly German—and completely frustrating the audience.

... too much Hollywood glitter . . . irritatingly pat situations—the wounded flier dies—the one doctor in Berlin who could help him; the fugitive car runs out of gas and a truck loaded with gasoline parks down the road; the band of heroes, racing from bloodhounds and hearing Nazis stumble onto a British plane, fueled and ready to head for England. VERDICT: Breathless, thrilling. ALSO: A cartoon that substitutes originality and humor for the usually sadistic animal antics; an interesting technicolor sports short.

Dane County Agent Opens Drive to Cut Farm Fire Hazards

A campaign to reduce farm fire hazards and prevent wartime loss of money and efficiency through farm fires was opened Friday by County Agent R. V. Hurley before the county board. Hurley reported that Dane county was second only to Milwaukee county in fire loss.
