Hedy Lamarr And William Powell Play At State

"Crossroads" Offers Drama And Intrigue

Quilna Presents "My Sister Eileen;" Lyric Has "Girl From Alaska"

"Crossroads." the current film at the State theatre, stars Hedy Lamarr and William Powell. It is a story of romance and intrigue, with a man's past looming as a threat to his happy present and future. Also in the cast are Claire Trevor, Basil Rathbone and Margaret Wycherly. Showing also is "Juke Box Jenny." the story of a singer who unwittingly became famous when her tunes hit the nickel boxes. "My Sister Eileen." starring

Rosalind Russell, Brian Aherne and Janet Blair, is currently at the Quilna theatre. Two girls from Columbus, O., go to New York for careers, rent a room in Greenwich Village, and the fun begins. A conglomeration of characters including a Cossack, six Portuguese cadets and a couple of magazine reporters, cavort thru the film.

A vivid and thrilling drama of the Alaskan gold rush days is "Girl From Alaska," the current Lyric offering, with Ray Middleton, Jean Parker, Jerome Cowan and Robert Barrat in the leading roles. Also on the screen is "Shadows on the Sage." starring the Three Mesquiteers, Bob Steele. Tom Tyler and Jimmie Dodd.

The current Ohio film, "Gentle-man Jim," offers Errol Flynn as the exponent of the stiff punch. Jim Corbett, heavyweight champion of other years. Flynn, also a favorite in romantic roles, gets his opportunities with Alexis Smith, feminine lead. Others in the cast are Jack Carson. Alan Hale, John Loder and William

Allyn Joslyn Again Cast In Newsman Role

Allyn Joslyn's first screen role, was received so favorably by the film fans of America that he immediately became "typed." For more than a year Joslyn played one reporter after another; he finally tired of carrying a press card and returned to Broadway.

Currently, Joslyn is carrying a press card, in "My Sister Eileen," now at the Quilna theatre with Rosalind Russell, Brian Aherne and Janet Blair starred. He's a reporter again-and he loves it!

"My Sister Eileen," is the screen version of the hit comedy which panicked the Broadways of America for two solid years. In its screen form, the film is said to be even more uproarious, and Joslyn has something to do with that fact. Others in the cast of the comedy are such farceurs as George Tobias, Miss Jeff Donnell, Richard Quine. June Havos, Donald MacBride, Gordon Jones, Frank Sully, Grant Mitchell and Elizabeth Patterson.

Not too long ago, Joslyn struggled for several years in an ef- KIWANIANS fort to "crash" Broadway. There was one period where he "enjoyed" 18 months of enforced idleness, so far as the theatre was concerned. Small radio jobs at minimum fees carried him thru another difficult period. Finally, in Hollywood, Joslyn got his "break"—the repoter's role in "They Won't For-Armed, in time, with a bank card which was his most frequent hotel. prep.
