Rejects 186 Proposals of Marriage

Charlotte Manson, heard as Rose Kransky in NBC's "Guiding Light," is just as interesting in real life as looks indicate. She wears hats all summer, never in winter—majored in criminal law at college. Her first week on the air brought 186 marriage offers, but don't worry, she said "No."

Results of today's elections in Madison, Dane county, Wisconsin, and the rest of the nation will be broadcast by WIBA at frequent intervals tonight, with reports from its own news room, from correspondents of nationwide news services, and from National Broadcasting Co. reporters. First summary is scheduled for 6:45 p. m., when H. V. Kaltenborn will survey the scene. Additional reports will reach WIBA listeners at 10, 10:30, 11, and 11:55 p. m., as well as at half-hour intervals in which NBC will interrupt its regular programs for election summaries.

The list of news summaries appearing elsewhere on this page includes both election reports and regular news broadcasts. In addition, most of the stations will interrupt broadcasts throughout the night to carry late returns. Other attractions tonight:

10 Apprentices Change Status

September Report Lists 4,221 in State

Changes in the apprenticeship status of 10 persons in Madison and southern Wisconsin were announced in the Sept. 30 report of Walter F. Simon, state industrialcommission supervisor of appren-

The report showed 4,221 apprentices at work in the state, an increase of 46 more than on Sept. 1. Apprentices recently admitted in the area are Robert Zerkle, Ft. Atkinson, who began as patternmaker with the F and W Pattern Works Sept. 8, and Delores Blum, Monticello, who is a cosmetician with Helga C. Nicholls. She began Sept. 16.

Two Transfers Made

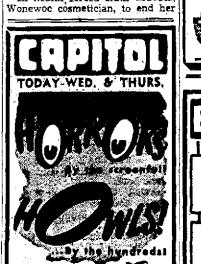

Two transfers were reported in the area. Hazel Olson, New Lisbon cosmetician, was transferred to the employ of Mabel McKenzie Aug. 6, and Dorothy Olson, Whitewater cosmetician, was reported employed by Mrs. V. Young, Aug.

The following six cancellations of apprenticeship were reported: Frank Felder, Janesville, a machinist for Fairbanks Morse and Co., was released as apprentice when his probation period ended. James Garbutt, Janesville, ended his apprenticeship with Fairbanks Morse and Co. when his probation closed Aug, 24.
