

Action-Packed Drama Will Feature Program At Quilna

Comedy Team Scoring Hit At Ohio; Gene Autry Scheduled For Run At Lyric Theatre

An action-packed drama, "Submarine Raider," which tells how the Americans fought the Japanese shortly after the beginning of World War II, comes to the Quilna theatre Wednesday with John Howard and Marguerite Chapman in the leading roles. Second attraction will be "The Spirit of Stanford." "The Loves of Edgar Allan Poe," and "Little Tokyo, U. S. A." show thru Tuesday.

The funniest Bud Abbott and Lou Costello bit, "Who Done It?" is drawing huge crowds to the Ohio theatre. Scheduled to show thru Thursday, this picture shows how the two laugh-makers apprehend a man who kills two persons while a radio program is in progress.

Opening Tuesday at the Lyric is a new Gene Autry production which is packed with action. "Call of the Canyon," features Autry as a spokesman for a group of cattlemen who is fighting for the small cattlemen.

Commencing Wednesday at the Sigma will be two top late films, "Secret Enemy," and "Wings and the Woman." Showing thru Tuesday will be "Jungle Siren," with Ann Corio and Buster Crabbe, and "Priorities on Parade."

The tale of three sisters who are left a large amount of money but find trouble collecting it is told in "The Gay Sisters," current State feature. Barbara Stanwyck, George Brent and Geraldine Fitzgerald are in the leading roles. "Drums of the Congo" also shows.

LYRIC
The recent phenomenal popularity of Gene Autry, singing cowboy, may be interpreted as one of the signs of the times. So great has been the popular demand for westerns and more westerns that the Hollywood studio, which has guided and sponsored the destinies of Autry ever since he was a fledgling cowboy entertainer, now presents the crooning western hero in an outside feature production of "epic" proportions.

"Call of the Canyon," opening Tuesday at the Lyric theatre, presents Autry as spokesman for a group of cattlemen who leads them in rebellion when the Johnson Packing Co. thru its agent, Thomas McCoy, offers only $65 a head for their cattle altho the Cattlemen's-asm has agreed on $80. Unbeknownst to Autry and other ranchers, McCoy is heavily involved in horseracing debts to a gangster bookie, and while Johnson himself, the head of the packing company, is willing to pay a fair price for the cattle, McCoy plots to underbid his own employer and appropriate the balance to cover his gambling debts.

Into the ensuing turmoil comes a pretty girl—played by Ruth Terry. She has sold Johnson a radio program for his packing company to sponsor, and inasmuch as her program involves western songs, she has to journey westward to find the necessary "talent" to make good. Johnson, too, travels westward, and learning how he is being victimized by his agent, McCoy, takes an active hand in setting matters straight with the ranchers who, thru McCoy's treachery, believe him to be dishonest.

Smiley Burnette and Joe Strauch, Jr., play their customary popular roles of "Frog Millhouse" and his kid brother "Tadpole."

QUILNA
Said to be an action-thrilling drama of those most fateful 24 hours in history, "Submarine Raider" comes to the Quilna theatre screen Wednesday hot on the heels of Pearl Harbor. Dramatic, tensely stirring story of a duel between an American submarine and a Japanese aircraft carrier, "Submarine Raider" features John Howard and Marguerite Chapman, with a stellar supporting cast which includes Bruce Bennett, Eileen O'Hearn, Larry Parks, Roger Clark and Warren Ashe.

"Submarine Raider" was put into production by the studios as soon after the treacherous attack as possible; it is believed to be the first dramatic screen production to reproduce in all their glowing story, the heroism of a handful of Yanks fighting against desperate odds, flinging defiance... and shells... to nip Nippon's savage fury! The film is unique, too, in that an important number of scenes are played in a locale hitherto foreign to films, a Japanese plane carrier.

Howard appears as the commander of an American submarine, cruising Pacific waters on the fateful eve of Pearl Harbor. Going to the rescue of a pleasure craft, sunk under Japanese bombs, he manages to pick up the sole survivor, lovely Miss Chapman. Her story is enough of a warning, but Howard fails to get his message of warning thru when the Japs "jam" the airplanes. The news of the Pearl Harbor attack, when it comes, sends the submarine, its crew and passengers into spine-chilling action in the terrifying depths of the sea, as Howard makes use of the ancient and honorable game of poker, and bluff, to outwit the Japanese.

Clifton Fadiman To Drop In On Duffy's For WJZ Program

Horace Heidt Lines Up An All-Army Guest List For His Weekly "Treasure Chest" Performance

Murder will out—even that of the King's English—as Ed "Archer" Gardner discovers when Clifton Fadiman, the "Information Please" purist, drops in at "Duffy's" for the broadcast over WJZ on Tuesday at 8:30 p. m.

"Just wants to ask me over to his show," boasts Archie, "to add some class to the piece." He professes no awe for his distinguished visitor even when Finnegan finds a dictionary between the leaves of Archer's pet racing form.

An all-Army guest list representing those branches of service which play a major part in winning the war has been lined up for Horace Heidt's "Treasure Chest" program on WFAP Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m. with the broadcast originating in Chicago. Heading the roster will be Brigadier General Fred S. Beaman, commanding officer of the 1st Troop Cavalry Command. Others are Col. Reed G. Landis, Co-Ordinator; Captain Michael C. Murphy, glider representative, Lt. Colonel Richard Chase, paratrooper representative; Sgt. Harold L. Walker, pilot, and Sergeant Birtsel L. Ashby, mechanic. One of the features of the broadcast will be the attendance of 200 men who will be flown to Chicago from Sout Field, Indianapolis.

Graphical enactment of the "never-say-die" spirit which has characterized the United States Marine Corps since its inception 167 years ago, will feature the Nov. 10 broadcast of "This Nation at War", to be heard over WJZ at 10:15 p. m. The entire program will be dedicated to the Marines.

Highlighting the program will be the "establishment of a beachhead" by the lusty leathernecks somewhere along the Potomac River at Quantico, Va., and an interview at Pearl Harbor with a Marine recently returned from combat in the southwestern Pacific theatre of war.

The case of Rose Taylor, weeping widow and accused murderess, will be presented during "Famous Jury Trials", Tuesday at 9 p. m. over WJZ.

An American Legion radio observance of Armistice Day, featuring addresses by National Commander Roane Waring, Auxiliary President Mrs. Ruth Mathedat and others, will be carried over WJZ Wednesday, from 10:57 to 11 a. m. Now and "I Left My Heart at the Stage Door Canteen."

The Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard also take a medley composed of "Anchors Awright,"

Originating from hallowed Arlington Cemetery, the solemn observance will be marked by the singing of the national anthem by state-spangled soprano Lucy Monroe, accompanied by one of the service bands, and an additional talk by Patrick Fitzgibbon, Legion Commander of the District of Columbia.

The traditional observance of two minutes of silence in remembrance of those who gave their lives in World War I, will be held during the broadcast.

NEW OFFICER ADDED TO LIMA POLICE FORCE
Lima police force ranks recently depleted by the loss of Wally Stovick, again stood at parity with the addition of a new rookie cop.

He is Richard Henston, 39, of 1315 Rose av., who officially began his full time duties Tuesday. A former employee of a local beverage company, Henston is married and has one daughter, Linda.

The Lima police department now has 39 members and is estimated to be undermanned on the assumption that the ideal sized police force has one officer for every 1,000 population.

Stovick enlisted in the U. S. Navy. An inventory of all new commercial motor vehicles has been ordered by WPB. Approximately 35,000 dealers, banks and finance companies will list vehicles in their possession.
