Yank Boots Tramp in Congo

Even in the far interior of Africa, American soldiers have taken their posts for the United Nations. United States troops are pictured above marching through Leopoldville, Belgian Congo, to board boats that carried them across the river to Brazzaville, capital of the Fighting French empire in Equatorial Africa. Army Corps Commissions 6 Area Men

Six men from the Madison area were commissioned second lieutenants in the army quartermaster corps Friday with 13 Wisconsin men who were a part of the 1,200 men graduated at exercises led by Brig. Gen. H. L. Whittaker, school commandant. Those commissioned were Henry Calvin Byers, Richards ave., Watertown; Walter Earl Chase, Camp Douglas; William Karl Geloneck, 805 S. Water st., Sparta; Francis August Krause, Waterloo; William Fred Rubin, Pennington, and Carter Allen, 424 N. Pinckney st., Madison. Col. H. L. Waggoner, commanding officer of the class which formed the second quartermaster school regiment, praised the men for outstanding work. Within an hour after they were commissioned the men left for duty with units throughout the country and overseas.
