Parade Of Stars Appears In "Tales Of Manhattan"

Much Discussed Movie Slated To Open With Preview At Quilna Theatre Wednesday Night

The much discussed film, "Tales of Manhattan," which follows a coat around on some of the highest-paid shoulders in Hollywood, will be offered in preview showing at the Quilna theatre Wednesday. The roll-call includes Charles Boyer, Henry Fonda, Paul Robeson, Rita Hayworth. Charles Laughton, Ethel Waters, Ginger Rogers, Edward G. Robinson and Rochester. Showing for the last times Wednesday are "Berha Correspondent," and "Careful, Soft Shoulders," Richard Greene, English actor who has been absent from 10:1 (Special To The Lima News). SIDNEY, Nov. 24 - Mrs. Harold Davis of Jackson Center is in Wilson Memorial hospital because of an unusual accident. She received the full load of shot from a 12 gauge shotgun as she stepped from the door of her home to tell a nephew not to leave his gun loaded. As she made the step, the gun, propped up along the side of the house, slipped down and fired directly at Mrs. Davis. A Jackson Center physician who was called said he believed no vital organs were struck altho the full load of shot entered her body. Her condition is fair.
