

Marine To Tell Of Killing 200 Japs In Solomons Fight

"Information Please" Expects $4,000,000 Gate In First Appearance On Road At Boston Friday

Corp. LeRoy Diamond of Brooklyn, N. Y., who, with two other Marines, Alvin Schmid and John Rivers, killed about 200 Japs at Guadalcanal, Aug. 21, will be interviewed on the "Men of the Land, Sea and Air" broadcast of Dec. 4 at 3:30 p. m. over WJZ. The young Marine will describe his experiences to George Hicks, and will tell how Rivers died a hero during the height of the battle, and how he and the other survivor were wounded while manning their machine gun.

"Information Please" will have a fabulous box-office take of nearly $4,000,000 if its first session outside of New York is a sell-out. The exact sum of $3,800,950 is the total at which the Treasury department war savings staff has scaled Boston's famed Symphony hall for the momentous War Bond benefit broadcast set for Dec. 4 over WJZ, 8:30 p. m. Jimmy Durante, the man whose nose led him to fame, and considerable fortune, will furnish the fun Dec. 4, 10-11 p. m., instead of Jack Benny as previously announced. Rounding out the parade of comedians which is the show's new wartime entertainment will be Lew Lehr, Eddie Green, and Herb Shriner.

Then came the dawn — and a sudden burst of activity when Uncle Tommy and Betty Lou realize that Christmas is just around the corner on the Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou show, Dec. 4, at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Kate Smith will present a micro-phones version of Booth Tarkington's celebrated story, "Alice Adams," with Julie Hayden in the title role, as the dramatic highlight of her Variety hour over WJZ, Dec. 4, at 8 p. m. Olyn Landick, "The Hackensack Gossip," Ted Collins, Jack Miller and Ted Straeter are on hand as usual to help with another gala program.

BOMBS DROP ON GERMAN CITIES

LONDON, Dec. 4.—(AP)—The R.A.F. renewing its night assaults on the Reich after a lapse of 10 days, struck last night at Frankfurt and several other objectives in western Germany, the air ministry announced today. Six aircraft were lost in the assault, said the announcement, which gave no indication of the size of the raiding force. (Estimating that the losses were six per cent, however—a figure frequently used as an index in the past—this would mean that a force of about 120 bombers was employed.) The Berlin radio referred to the raids—the first on Germany by night since the attack on Stuttgart Nov. 22—as "nuisance raids."

MEET CENTERS ON CHRISTMAS

DELPHOS, Dec. 4.—Singing of carols and Christmas features highlighted the monthly session of the Presbyterian Ladies Bible class Wednesday evening in the church parlors under the presidency of Mrs. Oscar Shellabarger. Mrs. William Stemen led the assembly in carol singing with Miss Anna Humphreys, accompanist. Miss Ida Smith discussed "The Spirit of Christmas."

Gifts were presented to Mrs. J. H. Jenkins, teacher, and Mrs. Cora Baxter, assistant instructor, by the class. In turn the teachers presented gifts to the members. There was an exchange of presents by the class.

Mrs. Charles Mullenhour led the devotional service. Following the

Quilna Film Will Show How Filipinos Hope To Oust Japs

Lloyd Nolan And Carole Landis Head List Of Stars Playing Friday Night In "Manila Calling"

"Manila Calling," the screen adventure to be previewed Friday at the Quilna theatre, shows how Filipinos hope to oust the Jap from their island home with American aid. The film features Lloyd Nolan, Carole Landis, Cornel Wilde and James Gleason. Don Ameche and Joan Bennett are the stars of the co-feature, "Girl Trouble." Showing for the last time Friday is "Tales of Manhattan."

Telling its thrilling love story in fiery Technicolor, a powerful romance of America's far-flung timberlines, "The Forest Rangers," opens Friday at the Ohio theatre. Fred MacMurray, Paulette Goddard and Susan Hayward heading the star-studded cast. Others in the list include Lynne Overman, Albert Dekker, Eugene Pallette, Regis Toomey.

The current double billing at the Lyric lists "The Falcon Takes Over," starring George Sanders in a mystery adventure, and "Outlaws of Pine Ridge," starring Don "Red" Barry, Lynn Merrick and Noah Beery.

The boys that man the ships of our Navy are the heroes of the forthcoming Sigma film, "The Navy Comes Thru," which stars Pat O'Brien, George Murphy and Jane Wyatt and commences Saturday. Also offered will be "The Falcon's Brother," with George Sanders, Tom Conway and Jane Randolph in the leading roles. For the last time Friday are "Scattergood Survives Murder" and "Arizona Round-up."

A new, exciting film about Jap spy and sabotage activities in the oil fields of California is the screen fare at the State theatre where "Buses Rear," is now showing. The fast-paced picture stars Richard Travis and Julie Bishop. Also on the screen is "Apache Trail," a western thriller starring Lloyd Nolan, Donna Reed and William Lundigan.

QUILNA
Don Ameche needed a valet. Joan Bennett wanted a job. The two got together, causing endless "Girl Trouble" for dapper Don and creating a design for living as modern as love in a black-out. The film, which comes Friday to the Quilna theatre, is essentially a romance, but previewers seemed to think there were at least as many hearty laughs as heart pangers throughout Miss Bennett's merry misadventures. Indirectly, the rubber shortage is the cause of it all. Don plays

A South American plantation owner trying to interest an American tire magnate in his product. Incidentally, he also tries to interest beautiful Miss Bennett. Circumstances prevent her from spurning his blandishments and, indeed, force her to stretch the point and pose as his maid. The film is hardly calculated to affect Pan-American relations or the rubber situation. Instead, it guarantees only to provide an hour or so of mirthful divertimento, a noble function which, judging from the cast and story, is fully armed to carry out. Outstanding favorites are featured in support of stars Ameche and Miss Bennett. Frank Craven appears as the rubber tire mogul. Billie Burke contributes an hilarious impression of a suffering dowager. On hand, too, is Alan Dinehart, of late a truant from the screen and a star on the Broadway stage, who plays a prissy attorney.

SIDNEY SAILOR SEES MATES DIE IN BLAZE

(Special to "The Lima News")
SIDNEY, Dec. 4.—Wallace Vorhees of Sidney, a sailor in a Navy school at Boston, was one of the rescue party in the Coconut Grove night club following the disastrous fire. He saw six of his classmates perish as they were crushed by a falling balcony as they attempted to rescue patrons of the club. Vorhees and his classmates reached the night club just a few minutes after the fire started. Vorhees served on the stretcher crew.
