Roundy: This letter is to acquaint you with one of the staunchest rooters Wisconsin ever had. He is my buddy, Corp. Fred Murphy of Superior, Wisconsin.

If you think I'm kidding here is what he did on a furlough at the start of the season. He stopped at Madison to see the Notre Dame game on Saturday. Then up to Green Bay to see the Packers play the Bears on Sunday. Then over to Superior to spend a week with his folks and back to Madison the following Saturday to see the Badgers trim Marquette. And on a soldier's pay that train fare wasn't hay.

He came back to the base saying if the Badgers didn't beat the Gophers it would be because of sabotage. I've never seen a more dejected man than he was on the day Iowa spoiled their chances for an undefeated season. But he was sure happy last Saturday when they clipped those Gophers. He is a subscriber to the Journal and we just got Sunday's paper today. It was really a happy day wasn't it? Here is how he picked the scores of the games before the season started. You may not believe them but I know they are the real McCoy. The only one he goofed off on was Iowa. Compare the total points with the actual total points and you'll see he wasn't

Wisconsin 20 Camp Grant Notre Dame Marquette

Missouri Great Lakes Purdue Ohio State Iowa Northwestern Minnesota

Not bad for an amateur eh? The actual points were 149 for really lay it into Iowa to avenge Wisconsin and 68 for opponents, the Badgers.

That's calling them pretty close. My buddy doesn't know I'm writing to you but I thought you ought to know about the guy. He sure is wild for the Badgers. He is as nuts about them as I aty about Michigan who lost two tough ones to Ohio and Minne-sota. Next year will be another story and if Michigan don't beat 13 Iowa this week I will (to steal one of your lines) walk out into the 10 Atlantic Ocean, Yours Sincerely, COUNTING WINS TRICKS KNOWING that the card led is the smallest of the suit held by the opener can be the key to your entire play. If it is a suit contract, you may be almost sure that it is either a singleton or his fourthbest from a four-card suit. That information may enable you to know that a certain otherwise risky play may be safe to try, or that a certain other apparently safe play would be risky. Counting the suit-lengths of your opponents will win many tricks for you, if you make due use of it.

↑ K 8 7 5 ♦ A 10 9 6 5 4985 ♦ A 2 ♥ J 4 ♦ 9 8 5 4 ♣ 10 7 6 6 N WE S ♠QJ964 ♦ A K Q 10 ♣ K

(Dealer: South. North-South vulnerable.) South West North 2 ♠ Pass

To most of the South players in a social duplicate game, the size

quence, and so they made exactly 4-Spades on this deal, losing one trick each in spades, hearts and clubs. A few of them made an extra trick against the same lead.

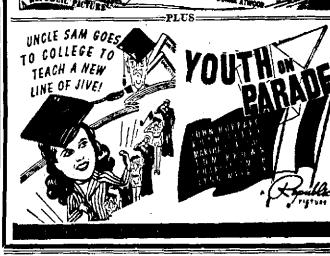

It was the diamond 3. Most of the declarers, after winning that with the 10, led trumps at once. East won with the A and switched to the club 4, the A winning the K and the J being returned for a ruff. Later the defenders at those tables took a heart trick. Only two of the declarers noticed the size of the card. With the 2 in dummy, the 3 was palpably West's smallest. That it could be a singleton was unlikely, as then East would have held six, making some kind of bid highly probable. If it was the bottom of a four-card suit, then East also had four. With this reckoning, those declarers cashed the rest of their diamonds and discarded all of dummy's clubs before leading trumps. As a consequence, they lost no trick in clubs, but only one each in the majors, so made an extra trick for a tied top.

Your Week-End Lesson

Do you understand the rare play called by some the "suicide squeeze" and by others the "cannibal squeeze," whereby one part-ner ruins the other? Can you set of the card used by West for the opening lead was of no conse- the principles involved? Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.
