

Last Americans To Leave Corregidor To Be On Radio

Class Of WAACS Leaving Hollywood For Training Will Be Guests Of Great Guildersleeve

Kate Smith will salute the last Americans to leave Corregidor by interviewing Lt. Commander John Morrill, U. S. Navy, and three members of his heroic crew, on her hour over WABC Dec. 18, at 8 p. m.

In one of the epic stories of the war, Lt. Commander Morrill and his men were ordered to abandon their mine sweeper, The Quail, and proceed to shore the day Corregidor fell. Instead, they decided to make a dash for it and spent 31 days in a 36-foot boat, hunted day and night by the Japanese air force.

First broadcast recruit party ever given the WAACS by a celebrity will be rendered a class of them Dec. 18, by the Great Guildersleeve and broadcast over WJZ at 11 a. m. Guests will be recruits leaving Hollywood for WAAC training in Des Moines, Iowa and Daytona, Fla. Guildersleeve, who in private life is actor Hal Peary, will decorate a tree for the recruits and give them Christmas presents.

By popular demand, Jimmy Durante returns to WABC Dec. 18, 10 p. m., to make the second appearance in three weeks on an hour long laugh program which will co-star Walter O'Keefe, Lew Lehr and Herb Shriner. Launy Ross and Georgia Gibbs will furnish the vocals with Xavier Cugat's orchestra providing the music.

"Those Good Old Days," a weekly presentation bringing back the golden era of show business, will feature Yvette Ruzal, one-time musical comedy star, on the show for Dec. 18, to be heard over WJZ at 8:30 p. m. Regular members of the cast, all big names in the colorful "Gay Nineties" days of the theatre, are Pat Barnes, master of ceremonies; Lulu Bates, Ethel Gilbert, Hal Willard and the Gay Nineties quartet.

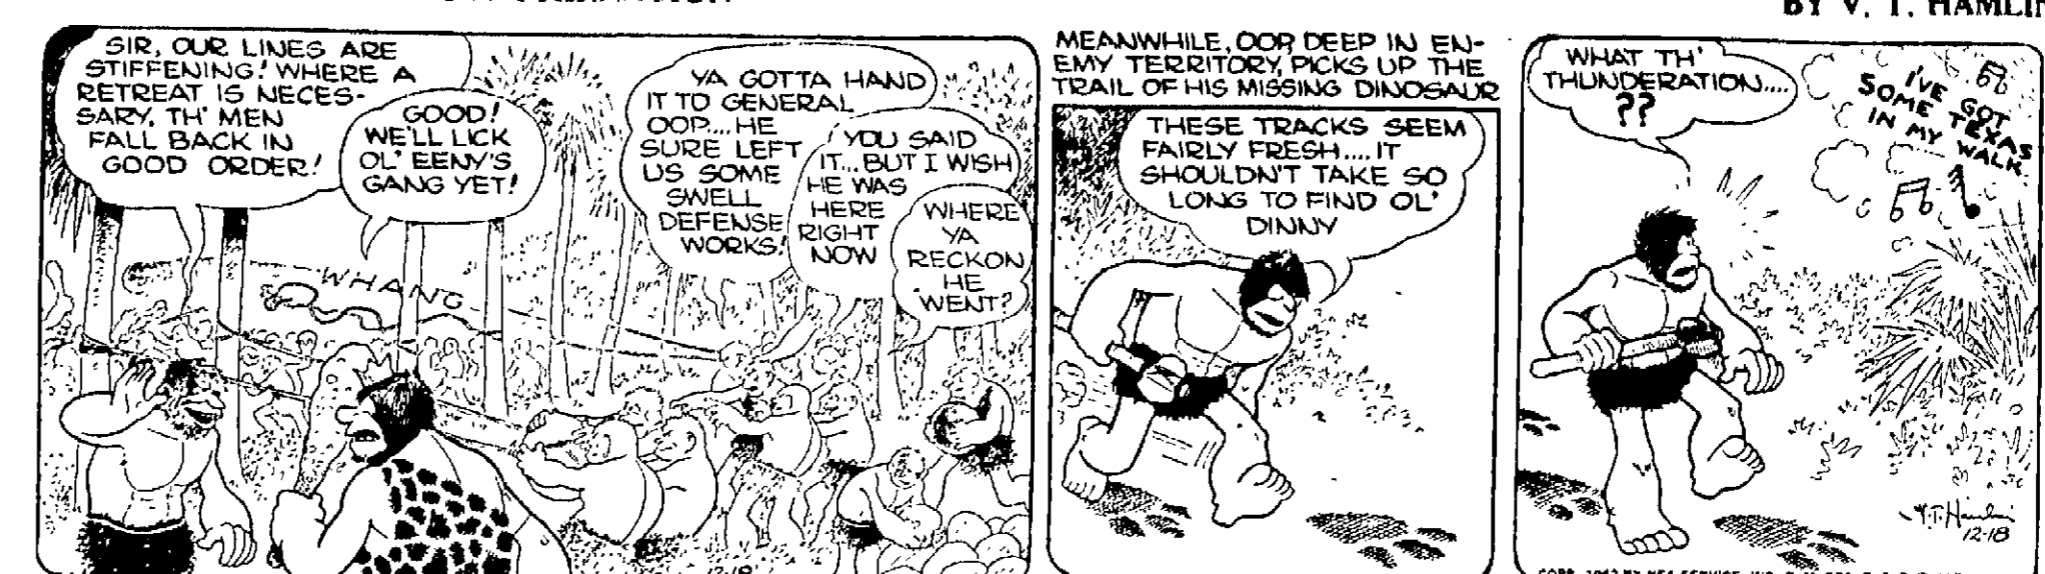

Judith Evelyn, who is currently starring in the Broadway production of "Angel Street," will be the guest of Stella Unger on her "Your Hollywood News Girl" program Dec. 18, at 2:45 p. m., over WJZ. Miss Evelyn will tell her experiences as a passenger aboard the torpedoed Athenia and

BLUFFTON MAN COMMISSIONED

(Special To The Lima News)
BLUFFTON, Dec. 18—James A. Griffith, Bluffton youth in training with the United States Army Air corps, has completed a three months' training course at the officers' school at Miami, Fla., and was graduated with the rank of second lieutenant.

He will be assigned soon to the air corps school at Palm Beach, Fla., as an instructor. Griffith entered the air corps service last February and previously was stationed at Randolph Field, Tex. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rogers of Bluffton. He was graduated from Bluffton high school in the class of 1936 and from Bluffton college in 1940.

WPB MAN SPEAKS

SIDNEY, Dec. 18—J. R. Strobel, Ohio director of training for War Production Board, was the guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Foremen's Club of Sidney.

Over 100 foremen and guests were present to hear him discuss the importance of supervision and training of manpower in war production. He considers that one out of every three men will be needed in war production.
