Thrills And Action Offered In Lyric Theatre's New Bill

"Alias Boston Blackie" And "Children Of The Wind" Open Monday; Quilna Picture Is Praised

All who saw "You Were Never Lovelier" at the Quilna over the week-end hailed it as a fine musical attraction. The alluring Rita Hayworth and the master-dancer, Fred Astaire, are perfect in this hit which has as its locale South America.

Currently attracting patrons to the Ohio is "The Road to Morocco" which is filled with laughs, music and romance. Leading roles are taken by Burt Crosby, Dorothy Lamour and Bob Hope.

Errol Flynn and Ronald Reagan portray fighting heroes in the State hit, "Desperate Journey." It tells what happens when five men raid Berlin. Also showing is "Moonlight in Havana," with Allan Jones and Jane Frazee.

Now showing at the Quilna is "Street of Chance," starring Burgess Meredith and Claire Trevor. The second hit, "Reunion in France," is about a Yankee flier who is stranded. Joan Crawford and John Wayne are in the principal roles.

LYRIC Boston Blackie drives detectives whacky . . . by solving a murder they want him for! Fletton's most beloved racial is knee-deep in murder he never saw . . . and a jail-break he never committed! He stages a prison show, to give "cons" some fun . . . you a thrill . . . and a ruthless killer, the slip! It's the hair-raising start of a breath-taking race to solve the strangest mystery in the sensational career of your favorite scoundrel!

Once more Chester Morris, as Boston Blackie, blasts a mystery that baffles cops and killers! In "Alias Boston Blackie," which is opening on Monday at the Lyric theatre, the silekest rascal on the screen is back again with his old friends George F. Stone, Richard Lane and Lloyd Corrigan keeping him company. The girl in the case is lovely Adele Mara. "Children of the Wind" also opens.

QUILNA The dances of Fred Astaire and Rita Hayworth in their new tuncel film, "You Were Never Lovelier," now at the Quilna theatre, are said to be even more spectacular than in their "You'll Never Get Rich."

Most of the dancing is "wide." Fred and Rita cover much more floorspace than in the earlier film. Instead of the emphasis being on tapwork with the couple photographed close together, the stars go in for big spins and swooping movements of the type associated with ballet.

The stars have top-notch melodic support in their new Columbia production. They sing and dance to songs by Jerome Kern and Johnny Mercer, played by Xavier Cugat's greatly augmented orchestra and group of entertainers.
