New York Symphony to Start 102nd Year

NEW YORK -(U.P)- The New York Philharmonicsymphony starts its 102nd year at Carnegie Hall Oct. 7 under the baton of its new musical director, Arturo Rodzinski. The regular subscription season will consist of the usual 28 weeks, of which Rodzinski will conduct 20. The guest conductors, Bruno Walter and Howard Barlow, will conduct for six weeks and two weeks respectively. On the opening program, Rodzinski will conduct the comparatively unfamiliar symphonic poem, "Falstaff," of Sir

Edward Elgar, the English

composer. It was heard in this country by the New York symphony under Walter Dam-

A "What is the smallest country in the world," and in reply I give the name of Vatican City. Vatican City is even smaller than San Marino, a little repub-lie in the midst of northeastern Italy. It also is smaller than Monaco, a tiny "principality" which dots the southeastern coast of France. Vatican City stands on one side of Rome. It has an area of only 108 acres, or slightly less than one-sixth of a square mile. Last year its population was about 800.

Sometimes Vatican City is called "the Papal State." It is the home of the pope, the head of the Roman Catholic church. The present Vatican City borders came into being when a treaty was made with Italy in 1929. It was to have its own government, and was to be free from Italian control.

Two years before the outbreak of the present war, I paid a visit to Vatican City and went through scores of rooms in the Vatican. The Vatican and St. Peter's Church sons visit it each day in times of scrapbook.) are almost the only buildings in peace.

The present Papal State was founded only 14 years ago, but in past centuries the pope had special control over a large part of Italy. He was the ruler of lands known as "States of the Church." In 1859 these lands had an area of 16,000 square miles. They covered Rome and stretched across Italy to the Adriatic sea. Bologna, Ravenna and Ferrara are among the places which were inside the borders.

In 1860 the "kingdom of Italy" was formed, and 10 years later all land was taken from the pope's control.

More than 400 years ago, Pope Julius II founded the famous group known as the Swiss Guards. These guards were made up of Swiss soldiers, and their special duty was to serve as an escort for the pope.

When Hitler's soldiers moved into Vatican City last month, the outside world was shocked. The Nazis said their only purpose was to protect the pope, but the real purpose seemed to be to make him a kind of prisoner.
