Famous Dance Band Showing On Stage At Ohio Theatre

Joe E. Brown Comedy Playing At Quilna; Betty Grable Coming To Lyric

The exciting music of Art Jarrett and his famous orchestra is being presented at the Ohio theatre Monday. Hailed as one of the finest bands of the day, it features the sensational Tom Morgan and the comedian Billy Blair. On the screen will be "Wrecking Crew," an action packed hit starring Richard Arlen and Chester;

Currently attracting huge crowds to the State is "The Major and the Minor," a laugh riot with Ginger Rogers and Ray Milland. Standing room only was available to patrons Sunday evening. Miss Rogers portrays a 12-year-old girl in order to get to her Iowa home for half-fare on a train. Also on the bill is "Get Hep to Love."

"Footlight Serenade," a musical treat, will open Tuesday at the with John Payne, Betty Grable and Victor Mature in the leading roles. Many favorite tunes of the past year are sung in this hit. "Atlantic Convoy" also will open. Ending Monday is "Bowery at Midnight," a thriller, and "Ridin' the Trail."

The Majestic now is showing "Footlight Serenade" and "Atlantic Convoy" which move Tuesday to the Lyric.

Now showing at the Quilna is a Joe E. Brown laugh riot, "The and Cobina Wright, Jr. Daring Young Man." You'll see "Atlantic Convoy," h how funny man Brown captures ing is "Counter Espionage," in ham, has many adventures.

A thriller, "Night for Crime." of Pennsylvania's largest cities.
