Black Market

CHICAGO — (U.P.) — John F. Manierre, regional OPA enforcement attorney, said Saturday night he hoped to have evidence ready for court action within a week against meat black markets in the Chicago area.

black market operations in meat consent. are extensive. The evidence covers illegal slaughtering and selling violate price regulations, he said. "We know that meat which has been slaughtered outside the regular packing houses and moved to retailers through irregular chan-nels is being sold by retailers in Chicago," Manierre said. "This is the same practice that is followed in establishing black markets in Europe."

He said the illegally prepared meat has not been inspected by federal authorities and is a health hazard. It does not bear the gov ernment inspector's stamp and grading stamp.

Dealers are selling C-grade meat at B and A grade prices, short-weighting and charging for bones in the meat, the OPA investigators a 37-passenger Greyhound bus in

Evading 55 Subs, Big Allied Convoy Reaches Africa

LONDON -(U.P.) - Admiral Sir Andrew Browne Cunningham, Allied naval commander in North Africa, has announced the arrival of a convey of 66 vessels, radio Morocco said Saturday night. The convoy encountered 50 submarines, Radio Morocco reported. Cunningham was said to have revealed that conveys were reachwest, thus greatly relieving the island's situation.

The radio asserted that 1,000 Allied ships had reached North Africa since the invasion last November, with losses of less than 3 per cent. The Axis was reported to have suffered extremely heavy submarine losses.

Landlord's Actions Wins Praises of OPA Rent Head

A letter commending Realtor Oscar A. Klovstad for permitting tenants to take in roomers without an extra charge was made public Saturday by F. O. Leiser, area rent director.

Leiser noted that Klovstad had encouraged families to double up in his properties, even though the Manierre said evidence he al-lesses expressly prohibited sub-ready had uncovered indicated letting rooms without Klovstad's

"Your action sets a splendid example for other landlords," Leiser of meats, as well as sales that declared, noting that Klovstad had asked no revision in rents.

"I understand that you are veteran of the World War I," Leiser wrote. "Let me say that I consider that your action in this matter indicates you are performing distinguished service on the home front in World War II."
