Also being well attended is the Quilna which is presenting the technicolor attraction, "The Black Swan," with Tyrone Power and Maureen O'Hara. Based on the book written by Rafael Sabatini. this picture is packed with romance and thrills.

Commencing Tuesday at the Lyric is "The Talk of the Town." in which Cary Grant portrays a fugitive. Others featured in this thrilling drama are Jean Arthur and Ronald Colman. The second feature is "Right to the Heart," a romantic comedy with Brenda Joyce and Joseph Allen, Jr.

Attracting crowds at the Sigma theatre is "Hitler's Children." a story telling about conditions in Germany. This sensational film features Tim Holt, youthful Bonita Granville and Otto Kruger. Completing the Sigma bill is 'Northwest Rangers," which tells the story of a man who gambled everything. James Craig, Patricia Dane and William Lundigan are featured.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be the final days for the showing of "Gentleman Jim" at the State. The story about James J. Corbett, heavyweight champion during the '90's, features Errol Flynn and Alex Smith. The second hit is "Priorities on Parade," a musical hit starring Ann Miller and Betty Rhoades.
