

Karloff And Lorry Starred In Horror Comedy At Lyric

Screen's Most Gruesome Twosome Slated; Laurel And Hardy In "A 'Haunting We Will Go" Is Cofeatured

The screen's most gruesome twosome, Boris Karloff and Peter Lorre, are starred in the new horror-with-howl comedy, "The Boogie Man Will Get You," which opens Tuesday at the Lyric. Also opening Tuesday will be "A 'Haunting We Will Go," latest Laurel and Hardy hit. "Silent Witness" and "Sundown Jim" will show thru Monday.

The Sigma is presenting a first class thriller, "The Gorilla Man," with John Loder and Paul Cavanaugh in the principal roles. Completing the bill is "The Palm Beach Story," a film packed with laughs featuring Claudette Colbert, Rudy Vallee and Joel McCrea.

All who saw "Arabian Nights" over the week-end at the Ohio theatre hailed it as one of the finest action pictures in months. Filmed in beautiful technicolor, it features John Hall, lovely Maria Montez and Sabu. This technicolor hit will show until Friday when "Casablanca" commences a week run.

There are laughs galore in the State hit, "Who Done It" which features Bud Abbott and Lou Costello. The two fun makers first portray soda jerkers and then they become detectives and help solve a murder. The State also is showing "Flying Fortress," starring the handsome English star, Richard Green.

Romance, comedy and action have equal parts in the two hits new flashing on the Quilna screen. "Laugh Your Blues Away," stars lovely Jinx Falkenburg and Bert Gordon, while "Flight Lieutenant," a thriller of the skies, has Pat O'Brien and Glenn Ford in the leading roles.

Monday will be the final day for the showing of "Little Old New York" and "Kid Glove Killers" at the Majestic theatre.

Pat O'Brien has been requested by the National Education-association to make recordings of his "America" for distribution to school children thruout the country.

O'Brien did a dramatic reading of the anthem on a recent Bing Crosby program, but worried over how the famous patriotic song would be received by the public.

Today, he has the answer. Literally hundreds of letters pouring in from every part of the nation spoke about the dramatic value of his rendition. Then came the offer from N. E. A.

O'Brien, currently headlined at the Quilna theatre with Glenn Ford and Evelyn Keyes in the aviation film, "Flight Lieutenant,"

WHY THOUSANDS OF DOCTORS PRESCRIBE THIS FOR Bad Coughs (DUE TO COLDS) Pertussin—a famous herbal remedy—often brings relief with the first spoonful. You see—Pertussin is scientifically prepared to work internally to relieve your cough spasms. Pertussin increases natural secretions in the respiratory tract to soothe irritated membranes. It improves ciliary action and loosens sticky phlegm and makes it easier to raise. Safe and effective for both old and young. Inexpensive!
