

VICTORY BOOK CAMPAIGN TO OPEN MONDAY

Army And Navy Ask Local Aid In Collecting Reading Material

The Victory Book campaign for 1943 will get under way this week, it was announced Saturday by Mrs. Charles Baker, president of AWVS and general chairman of the campaign. The campaign for 1943 is being sponsored jointly by the American Women's Voluntary Service, the American Red Cross and the Lima Public Library.

The Victory Book campaign for 1943 was designated by the Army and Navy as the official agency for the collection of books to be distributed among the nation's fighting men.

The emphasis for this year's campaign will be on the quality of the books to be given to the armed forces.

Types of books needed are current best sellers, popular fiction and non-fiction published since 1930, adventure, western, detective and mystery stories, and technical books published since 1935.

The books will be received at AWVS headquarters in the National Bank-bldg. Arrangements for pick-up service will be announced later but citizens are urged to bring their books to the collection center, if possible. The slogan for the campaign is, "Any book you really want to keep is a good one to give."
