

Listeners' Choice

SPECIAL EVENTS.

- 10:00 a. m.—W-G-N—Northwestern Reviewing Stand: "Is Axis Morale Cracking?" Speakers: Jack Marrow, Richard Struna, and Kenneth E. Olson.
10:30—WBBM—Invitation to Learning: Analyze Rudyard Kipling's "Kim."
12:30 p. m.—W-G-N—Victory Is Our Business. Guest: Mrs. Mollie Huebseh.
1:00—W-G-N—Citizens of Tomorrow salute Lake Forest High school.
1:00—WMAQ—University of Chicago round Table: "The Farmer and Victory."
Participants: T. W. Schultz, Dean William Speer, and Dean Chris Christensen.
2:15—WENR—Wake Up, America: "What Should Be Done with Conquered Japan?" Speakers: John Goette, John W. Vanderecock, and Hallett Abend.
4:15—W-G-N—News, with Upton Close interviewing Col. John Stillwell.
7:00—W-G-N and W59C—Forum of the Air: "The Anti-Racketeering Bill," with Rep. Sam Hobbs, Charles Dickinson, Lee Pressman, and Henry Kaiser.
8:30—W-G-N—E. R. Noderer, Tribune correspondent, reports on war.
8:30—WIND—Chicago Sunday Evening club. Speaker: Bishop James E. Freeman on "Great Moments in Life."
10:00—WCFL—Hockey: Chicago Black Hawks vs. New York Rangers.

VARIETY, COMEDY, AND DRAMA.

- 11:30 a. m.—W-G-N—Funny Paper Party: Reading of Sunday Tribune comics.
11:30—WMAQ—"That They Might Live," with Fredric March, Florence Eldridge.
2:30 p. m.—WJJD—Northwestern Play Shop: "Now and Evermore."
4:30—W-G-N—The Shadow, starring Bill Johnstone in "Song of Death."
5:00—W-G-N—First Nighter: Barbara Luddy and Lester Tremayne in a romantic comedy titled, "Small Town Premiere."
5:05—WCFL—Lillian and Dorothy Gish in a dramatization in the life of the Soong sisters.
5:30—W-G-N—Moose Fireside Party, with Louise Massey and Norma Jean Ross.
5:30—WBBM—Sergt. Gene Autry show: Army air forces dramatization.
6:00—WMAQ—Jack Benny show, with "Rochester." Guest: George Jessel.
6:30—W-G-N—Easy Money, starring Willard Waterman as Mike Trent.
6:30—WENR—Quiz Kids from U. S. S. Wolverine: Claude Brenner, 14; Harve Fishman, 12; Joel Kupperman, 6; Margaret Merriek, 14, and Davis Sher, 10.
6:30—WBBM—Sky's the Limit: Variety from Glenview air base. [Premiere.]
7:00—WMAQ—Charlie McCarthy & Edgar Bergen show. Guest: Theresa Wright.
7:00—WBBM—Only Yesterday, with Benny Rubin, Mary Small. [New day.]
7:30—WLS—Inner Sanctum Mystery: Chester Morris in "Ring of Death."
8:00—W-G-N—Stars of Tomorrow: Amateurs, with Mauri Cliffer, M. C.
8:00—WBBM—Radio Reader's Digest: George Raft stars in "The Knife."
8:10—WIND—Treasury Star Parade, with Vivian Della Chiesa, Conrad Thibault.
8:30—WBBM—Fred Allen show. Guests: Claude Rains and singing quartet.
9:00—WBBM—Take It or Leave It, with Phil Baker. Guest: Ed Gardner.

MUSIC.

- 12:30 p. m.—WJJD—Concert Hall: Borodin's "Prince Igor" overture, Offenbach's "Gaité Parisienne" ballet, and Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" suite.
1:30—WMAQ—John Charles Thomas show, with John Nesbitt. Music: "All the Things Are You," "Whistle While You Work," "My Hero," and "My Homeland."
2:00—WBBM—New York Philharmonic Symphony, with Bruno Walter conducting. Guest: Arnaldo Estrella, pianist. Music: Tschalkowsky's first piano concerto in B-flat minor, Mozart's Symphony No. 35, and two Wagner selections.
3:00—WJJD—Concert Hall: "Pleasure Dome of Kubalell Kahn," Prokofieff's violin concerto in D major, and Sibellus' "Night Ride and Sunrise."
3:30—WBBM—André Kostelanetz's guests, Anne Brown, Sergt. Eugene List.
4:00—WMAQ—Symphony orchestra conducted by Arturo Toscanini will play Grofe's "Grand Canyon" suite, Henry F. Gilbert's "Comedy" overture, Kent Kennan's "Night Soliloquy," and Charles Griffes' "The White Peacock."
6:00—WENR—Metropolitan auditions. Singers: Lela Flynn, Anna Malenfant, and John Baker. Guest: Gloria Caruso, daughter of the late Enrico Caruso.
6:30—WMAQ—The Bandwagon, with Blue Barron and his orchestra.
9:00—WMAQ—Hour of Charm. Guest: Carl Sandburg to present a reading.
10:00—WEDC—Symphonie hour: Saint-Saëns' "Samson and Delilah" ballet.
10:05—WIND—Symphonie hour: McDonald's "Rhumba," Prokofieff's "Peter and the Wolf," and Grieg's "Peer Gynt" suite No. 1.