"Newest Music Sensations" Billed At Ohio Thursday

Bob Chester And His Orchestra To Appear For One Day; "My Heart Belongs To Daddy"

Is On Screen

On the Ohio stage Thursday will be Bob Chester and his orchestra, termed the nation's newest musical sensations. Appearing with the band leader will be the lovely Betty Bradley, one of the finest feminine singers of the day. Richard Carlson and Martha O'Driscoll will be seen in the screen hit, "My Heart Belongs to Daddy." Commencing Friday at the Ohio will be "Once Upon a Honeymoon," starring Gary Grant and Ginger

The Quilna will show "A Night To Remember," at its Friday night preview. Lovely, talented Loretta Young is starred with Brian Aherne in the new mirthful murder mystery. The co-stars appear as husband and wife who do a bit of amateur sleuthing when they discover a corpse in their

Currently flashing on the Sig-ma screen are "Kid Dynamite," and "Fighting Frontier." The East-Side Kids have leading roles in the first hit while in the western production Tim Holt has many thrills and fights.

The Lyric is presenting "Sccret Agent of Japan," a tale of Shanghai espionage activities which lead up to the treacherous attack on Pearl Harbor. Preston Foster and Lynn Bari are co-starred. "Prairie Gun Smoke" also shows.

The heart gripping story of a Broadway glamor girl who triumphs over a broken back for a few brief moments to make a sensational farewell appearance is brought to the screen in "The Big Street," State hit. Henry Fonda and Lucille Ball are co-starred. Also showing is "Tough As They Opening at the Majestic Thurs-
