Laughs, Mystery And Romance In Store For Lyric Patrons "The Night Before The Divorce" Features Lynn Bari, Mary Beth Hughes And Joseph

Allen, Jr.

Laughs galore, spiced with a dash of mystery and romance, are in store for fans at the Lyric Tuesday when "The Night Before the Divorce," opens an engagement. If features Lynn Bari, Mary Beth Hughes and Joseph Allen, Jr. "Flight Lieutenant," starring Pat O'Brien and Glenn Ford, also is scheduled to start Tuesday. Ending Monday will be "The Postman Didn't Ring" and "Overland to Deadwood."

"Who drowned the man in Nancy's bathtub?" is one of the big problems to be solved in the Quilna's laugh hit, "A Night to Remember." This fun filled production features Brian Aherne and Loretta Young.

"Three Hearts for Julia," a racy, rip-roaring comedy, will replace, Once Upon a Honeymoon," at the Ohio theatre on Tuesday, Dealing with a war correspondent, this film stars Ann Sothern, Melvyn Douglas, Lee Bowman, Reginald Owen and Richard Ainley.

Currently showing at the Sigma is a new technicolor production, "Bambi," by Walt Disney. Also showing at the Sigma is a first class comedy, "The Great Gildersleeve," featuring Harold Peary of radio fame, and Jane Darwell. Packed with action, "The Forest Rangers," in technicolor, is flashing on the State screen with Fred MacMurray, Paulette Goddard and Susan Hayward in the leading roles. The co-feature is "The War Against Mrs. Hadley," starring big and likable Edward Arnold. City of Missing Gifls" and

"Grand Central Murder" now are showing at the Majestic.
