"The Great Impersonation" To Open Thursday At State

Ralph Bellamy Plays Dual Role Of Lazy Wastrel And High Ranking Officer In Secret Police Ranks

Evelyn Ankers and Ralph Bellamy have the leading romantic and dramatic roles in "The Great Impersonation," which opens Thursday at the State for a three-day run. Bellamy portrays a lazy wastrel and a high ranking officer in the secret police. "The Omaha Trail," starring James Craig and Pamela Blake, also opens Thursday. Ending Wednesday will be "The Forest Rangers," and "The War Against Mrs. Hadley."

Commencing Wednesday at the Sigma will be "Dr. Gillespie's New Assistant," which deals with a runaway bride. This mysterious and exciting hit features Van Johnson, Susan Peters and Keye Luke. Completing the new bill will be "Truck Drivers," with Richard Travis and Virginia

Currently attracting crowds to the Lyric is "Flight Lieutenant," a thrilling story of the air starring Pat O'Brien, Glenn Ford and Evelyn Keyes, "The Night Before the Divorce." with Lynn Bari and Mary Beth Hughes, also is flashing on the screen.

Now showing at the Ohio theatre is a riotous comedy. "Three Hearts for Julia." This racy-rip roarious hit stars Ann Sothern and Melvyn Douglas. It will show until Friday when "The Hard Way," a first class picture with Ida Lupino opens an engagement. "A Night to Remember," a gay new mystery, currently is flashing on the screen at the Quilna theatre. Starring Loretta Young, Brian

It's the extra touch Andre Kostelanetz gives to music that gives this program a character all its own. Coca-Cola, too, won distinction by giving folks something extra in refreshment. Raise a frosty bottle of Coca-Cola to your lips. Where else than in Coca-Cola itself will you find this unique taste? It more than quenches thirst. It adds refreshment . . . refreshment that goes into energy. Fifty-seven years of experience and skill, with choicest ingredients—create a quality in Coca-Cola that never loses the freshness of its appeal. Wartime limits the supply of Coca-Cola. Those times when you cannot get it, remember: Coke, being first choice, sells out first. Ask for it each time.
