Ida Lupino Co-Stars With The Old Rascal In "Life Begins At Eight-Thirty"

The old rascal himself, Monty Woolley, returns to the 23 Egyptian screen of the Quilna theatre in "Life Begins at Eight-Thirty," with Ida Lupino sharing top honors. Cornel Wilde, Sara Allgood, Melville Cooper and J. Edward Bromberg also appear in the film version of the stage hit. The staff of the 29 Ethical. March of Time produced the co-feature, "We Are the Marines." Loretta Young and Brian Aherne appear in the current attraction, "A Night to, Remember."

Ida Lupino, Denis Morgan and Joan Leslie are the stars of "The Hard Way," scheduled for appearance at the Ohio theatre Friday. A pair of reliable and familiar veterans, Jack Carson and Gladys George, head the supporting cast. Moving out Thursday, is "Three Hearts For Julia," starring Ann Sothern and Melvyn Douglas.
