Harry has a 185 average in the Industrial circuit and 201 in the Recreation, but he has rolled only 15 games in the latter loop.

Meanwhile, another veteran kegler and alleykeeper Cy Perkins, came up with his best count of the season to finish in the runnerup spot, five pins gregate. Cy finished with 247 after cracking out games of 212 and 204 in the Business-men's League at the Madison Alleys. Dukelow's big count sparked his

Ray-O-Vac team to team honors for the night. His 279 featured a 1.053 opening game and the team went on to 2,866.

In all, 10 honor counts were registered in the city Friday night with only one of them being recorded in the fast Classic League at Schwoegler's. Shooting against new wood on newly polished drives the Classic leaguers found the going rough and only Al Sabroff managed to crack 600, getting 621.

Arlene Mittlesteadt paced ladies competition Friday night with 533 in the A. F. of L. league at the Modern Recreation alleys. Abbie Ryan followed with 519 in the same circuit.
