Joe E. Brown Bowls And Traps Nazi Spies On Lyric Screen

New Mystery-Comedy Completes Bill Opening Tuesday; "The Hard Way" Continues At The Ohio

Coming Tuesday to the Lyric is "The Daring Young Man," in which Joe E. Brown portrays a champion bowler and a big mouthed comedian who helps trap a band of Nazi spies. Pretty Marguerite Chapman also has a leading role. A new mystery-comedy, "Whispering Ghosts," also will show Tuesday. Ending Monday are "It Happened in Flatbush" and "Outlaws of Boulder Pass."

Those who saw "The Hard Way," at the Ohio theatre over the week-end termed it one of the finest pictures to show in Lima in recent weeks. Starring Ida Lupino, lovely Joan Leslie and Dennis Morgan, it tells about a girl who will do anything to make her sister nappy.

Thrills galore are found in "Eyes of the Underworld." at the Sigma which features hardboiled Richard Dix and alluring Wendy Barrie. The co-feature, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," a first class musical, stars Allan Jones, Jane Frazce, Gloria Jean and a host of other favorites.

Currently flashing on the screen at the State is "For Me and My (fal," a film in which Judy Garland has her first adult role. She plays a singer in this poignant love romance set against the glittering background of vaudeville in its heyday. "Scattergood Survives Murder," with Guy Kibbee, completes the program.

Two fine attractions, "We Are The Marines," and "Life Begins at Eighty-Thirty," now are showing at the Quilra. The first hit deals with the life of a leatherneck. Leading roles in the other picture are taken by Ida Lupino, Monty Woolley and Cornel Wilde.
