Ancient Legend Is Blended With Modern Romance In Film

Yugoslavia And New York City Linked In "Cat People," Which Opens At Sigma Theatre Wednesday

An ancient legend of Yugoslavia concerning women who can turn into huge panthers is blended with a modern romance in New York City in "Cat People" which comes to the Sigma on Wednesday. This thriller features Simone Simon, Kent Smith, Jane Randolph and Jack Holt. "Dead Men Walk," with George Zucco and Mary Carlisle, also will show on Wednesday. "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" and "Eyes of the Underworld" show thru Tuesday. Continuing at the Ohio is "The Hard Way," a tense, mov-

BAREFOOT. BOY SIGN OF SPRING

CHICAGO, Feb. 23-(INS)-Visitors at Chicago's Lincoln Park zoo reported a new harbinger of spring today - not an early robin, but an unconcerned barcfoot boy. Someone who thought the lad was lost called the police to whom the boy identified himself as Ralph Linhart, 6, and explained he had taken off his shoes and stockings just outside his home and gone for a stroll. He duly was credited with being the first barefoot boy of the season and taken back home by the police.
