TOLEDO, March 5-(AP)-U. S. District Attorney Marcus L. Friedman today applied for temporary and permanent injunction to restrain The Runkle Co. of Kenton, confectionery and baked goods concern, from violating the Food and Drug Act.

The complaint was filed in Federal Court after the government appeared at a hearing asking forfeiture of a $500 bond pested by the company Oct. 29 as assurance that certain preducts would not be used except under the supervision of government inspectors. The government maintained some equiterated products and been traincossed and shipped without the knowledge of inspectors. Federal Judge Frank I. Riceb took the matter under ad ferment. The complaint said the concern had been using substances unfit for food and packaging the product under unsamfary conditions.
