"Moscow Strikes Back" To Open Tuesday At The Lyric

"Keeper Of The Flame" Continues At Ohio, And Quilna Offers Ice And Comedy In Double Feature

A little stuff in colluloid that Adolf, the Berlin butcher, wouldn't care to see, called "Moscow Strikes Back," is due for showing at the Lyric theatre Tuesday, along with a Joan Crawford-Melvyn Douglas film, "They All Kissed the Bride." Roland Young, Billie Burke and Allen Jenkins, a top comedy three-some, appear in the latter film. Showing for the last times Monday are "Smoking Guns" and "The Westland
