RAF Attacks Burma Villages

NEW DELHI — (U.P.) — Two formations of Royal Air Force Blenheim bombers, escorted by Hurricane fighters attacked enemy-occupied villages in the Akyab area of western Burma Friday, a headquarters communique said Saturday.
Hurricanes of one formation shot down at least one enemy interceptor and badly damaged several others, while the second formation bagged an enemy fighter near Kudaung, approximately 19 miles northwest of Akyab, sending it down in flames.
One plane was reported missing.
