Wilbur Evans To Star In "Pinafore" On Saturday

"National Barn Dance Folks" To Stage Annual St. Patrick's Day Party

Wilbur Evans, popular young baritone of "Stars from the Blue," will sing the leading role, that of Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., in a performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pinafore" to be heard on WJZ Saturday, 8:15 to 9:15 p. m. (EWT). The Boston Symphony orchestra, usually heard at this time, will be on tour that date, and will not broadcast.

Sure and it's their annual St. Patrick's Day party that the "National Barn Dance Folks" will be holding in the Old Hayloft Saturday (WEAF, 9 p. m., EWT). The ensemble will begin with "It's a Great Day for the Irish." The Dinning Sisters follow with the old Irish ballad, "The Pretty Girl Milking Her Cow," and return later with "Johnny Doughboy Found a Rose in Ireland."

Americans who feel abashed because we are unable to do more for Russia should recall the situation 20 years ago, suggests Harold Fleming, of "The People's War" (WEAF, Saturday, 1:45 p. m., EWT). "There must be more than two million Russian soldiers fighting today who were kept alive as children by American food in 1923," Fleming says.

Ellery Queen challenges one of America's foremost criminologists, John Shuttleworth, editor of a leading detective magazine, to solve the "Adventure of the Incredible Murder" Saturday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EWT). Shuttleworth will be the guest armchair detective of the famous gentleman sleuth.

High-ranking Army officers, headed by Chief of Staff Gen. George C. Marshall, will be heard in a special program commemorating the 14th anniversary of the Association of Graduates of the West Point Military Academy on Saturday. The broadcast will be heard over WEAF at 7 p. m., (EWT). Other speakers will include Maj. Gen. Francis B. Wilby, superintendent of West Point, and Maj. Gen. Robert M. Danford (ret.), president of the association, speaking from New York.

With more than two decades of major golf tournaments behind him, Gene Sarazen will reminisce with Bill Stern on the "Sports Newsreel" Saturday (WEAF, 10 p. m., EWT).
