"The Pied Piper" Wlill Move Uptown To The Lyric Theatre

Three-Day Run Scheduled For Story Of Old Man Who Found Way To Help His Country In Wartime

"The Pled Piper," which shows Monday at the Majestic theatre, will be moved to the Lyric theatre commencing Tuesday. Scheduled for a three-day run, this action packed production features Monty Woolley, Roddy McDowall and Anne Baxter. It tells how an old man helps his country during the war. "Sing Your Worries Away," will also begin Tuesday.

The State currently is presenting "White Cargo," a story filmed in the jungles and starring Hedy Lamarr and Walter Pidgeon, Completing the program is "Seven Days" Leave.' Victor Mature and Lucille Ball. Seven of Hollywood's finest actors -- George Brent, Priscilla : Lane, Bruce Cahot, Lynne Over-Lugene Paliette, Janet Beecher and Guinn "Big Boy" Williams-have lead roles in "Silver Queen," at the Sigma.
