

Hunt For Mystery Killer Features State's Thriller

"The Falcon's Brother" Opens Thursday, Starring George Sanders, Jane Randolph And Tom Conway

An exciting man-hunt thru New York City and a Long Island coastal town for a mystery killer who is clicking off his victims with deadly regularity offers the plot background for "The Falcon's Brother," which is scheduled to open at the State on Thursday.

Authentic and official films showing Americans against the Germans in North Africa will be shown at the Ohio on Friday. The technicolor hit, "At The Front," lasts for 42 minutes and was produced by the U. S. Army Signal Corps.

At the Lyric is "Ten Gentlemen From West Point," a story that is the very heart and soul of West Point. Based on facts discovered in the Congressional Record, the film depicts the stirring rebirth of the mighty American military institution, and shows how 10 men, by their spirit, courage, honor and battling bravery, enabled the Academy to survive.

Scattergood Baines arranges a successful USO show, and in turn, brings about the successful introduction of a talented girl singer in the latest of the series featuring this famous character, "Cinderella Swings It." Sigma hit, Guy Kibbe and Gloria Warren are starred.

Nearing the close of a run at the Quilna are "Lucky Legs," starring tall and beautiful Jinx Falkenburg, Leslie Brooks and Kay Harris, and "Boston Blackie Goes Hollywood," dealing with jewel thieves. Scheduled to commence Friday night is "The Young Mr. Pitt," the stirring story of yesterday that tells of today.

From one of the least known and most romantic episodes of early American days, Hollywood brings to the screen the smashing, action-packed story of the United States Military Academy in "Ten Gentlemen from West Point," at the Lyric theatre.

Starring George Montgomery, Maureen O'Hara and John Sutton, the film has been called a rousing
