

New Songstress Set For Jolson-Woolley Program

Three Quiz Masters To Face Trio Of Hunter College Professors In "Battle Of Sexes"

The Al Jolson-Monty Woolley program will originate from Hollywood studios Tuesday, 8:30 p. m. E.W.T. WABC with a brand new songstress, Jo Stafford; a new orchestra, Gordon Jenkins; and a new announcer, Carlton Kadell. It will be Miss Stafford's first big opportunity as a solo star.

An apple for the teacher might be a good investment for the three quiz masters who face three Hunter college professors on "Battle of the Sexes" Tuesday, over WEAF at 9 p. m. E.W.T. The women, all expert at answering unanswerable questions, are Prof. Mina Rees, teacher of algebra; Grace Carhart, instructor in geology; and Dr. Helaine Newstead of the English department. Bob Hawk and Budd Hulick, with a third quizzer to be announced, will have the tables turned on them by fast talking Walter P. Keefe.

Because it was Boyd Harlan's gun that killed Otto Alder, and because Harlan was found leaning over the corpse he was arraigned and tried for murder in case to be presented during "Famous Jury Trials," Tuesday at 9 p. m. E.W.T. over WJZ.

Fred Waring will introduce his new song dedicated to Marine aviators entitled "A Toast to the Corps in the Air" on his "Pleasure Time with Victory Tunes" broadcast, Tuesday, over WEAF at 7 p. m. E.W.T. The program will be made up of songs chosen by the Marines at the U. S. Marine Base, Cherry Point, N. C.

Russ Morgan and his orchestra will appear on the "Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands" on VJZ Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. E.W.T. when he will play for the men at Jefferson Barracks in St. Louis, Mo.

Dr. Roy Shield will whip up delectable musical dish for his Roy Shield and Co.' program Tuesday over WEAF at 12:05 p. m. E.W.T. He'll offer such orchestra numbers as "Maybe," "It's Always You" and "More Than You Know," the latter highspotting the strings.

Hopalong Cassidy And His Pals Coming To The Sigma

Western Favorite Combs Countryside For Robbers; "Lady From Chungking" Also Is Scheduled

Hopalong Cassidy and his pals make a desperate search of the country for a gang of bank robbers and cattle rustlers in "Lost Canyon," due Wednesday at the Sigma. Bill Boyd portrays "Hoppy" and Lola Lane has the lead feminine role in the hit which is scheduled to show for three days. "Lady From Chungking," also will open. Ending Tuesday are "Keep 'Em Slugging" and "Hi Ya Chum."

The greatest love story of our war generation comes to the screen of the Lyric Tuesday, with Tyrone Power and Joan Fontaine in the starring roles of Daryl F. Zanuck's filmization of Eric Knight's novel, "This Above All." Henry Fonda is starred in his most hilarious role in the co-feature, "Rings on Her Fingers." A new comedy, "Dixie Dugan," commences Tuesday at the Quilna to play "The Young Mr. Pitt." Scheduled to show thru Friday afternoon this production features James Ellison, Charlotte Greenwood, Charles Ruggles, and Louis Anderson.

The funnest of Abbott and Costello comedy hits, "It Ain't Hay," based on a story written by the famed writer, Damon Runyon, currently is being presented at the Ohio theatre. Many of the scenes in this not are laid at the famous race track, Saratoga. "At The Front," also is showing.

Song-filled "Yankee Doodle Dandy," one of the best films produced last year, currently is flashing on the screen at the State with James Cagney portraying George M. Cohan. In the supporting roles are Waller Huston, who plays Cohan's father; Richard Whorf, cast as the partner of the song and dance man; Joan Leslie, seen as Cohan's wife; and Frances Langford as a singer who was popular during the last war. "At The Front," films of Americans fighting in Africa, also shows.

Another hard-fighting, suspense-filled western drama called "Lost Canyon," the most recent in the series of Hopalong Cassidy stories produced by Harry Sherman, is due Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

As usual Bill Boyd plays the beloved character of Hopalong, with his accustomed side-kicks in this popular series, Andy Clyde and Jay Kirby. The lovely blond Lola Lane, of the Lane Sisters, drew the role of leading lady in this exciting film.

"Lost Canyon" tells the story of Johnny, a young friend of Hopalong's, who has been accused of a bank robbery. Alho innocent he is forced to hide out when a posse gets on his trail. When Hoppy learns of this charge against the boy, he is furious and sets out to clear the boy.

Offered the job of foreman on a nearby ranch, Hoppy gets wind of a lot of undercover jobs that make his decision to clear Johnny much easier. He also prevents the

Pull the Trigger on Constipation, with Ease for Stomach, too

When constipation brings on discomfort after meals, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease to your stomach in taking. For years, many doctors have given pepsin preparations in their prescriptions to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Syrup Pepsin. Inset on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative-Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin, as directed on label or as your doctor advises, and feel world's better. Get genuine Dr. Caldwell's.
